*Memory uses golden threads
To weave her magic spell.
And deep within the cloth of life,
My heart remembers well.*

*Each precious moment spent with you,
The laughter and the tears,
The sunshine and the shadows, too,
The storm clouds and the fears.*

*What matters if the thread is broken?
It's brightness will remain,
To guide me through the darkness till
The sun shines once again.*
