"Saying Goodbye"

We are never prepared to say goodbye.
Have so many questions asking why.
Our hearts are heavy, the hurt, the pain
our lives without you want be the same.
It seems so surreal that you are gone. Just know your kids want be alone.
Family, friends and love ones to all have good memories to share of you.
Though it was sudden the time is here. To know you, to have loved you was a blessing so dear.
We bow our heads, we shed our tears, we say our good byes as you go home, in our hearts you will live on.

Reflections of Life

Tameka
Bonqueisha Leonard

Ms. Tameka “Bonqueisha” Leonard was born to Tony McCoy and Beverly L. Gibson on July 21, 1987 in West Columbia, SC. She attended Brookland Cayce High School where she graduated from in 2006. Her life was filled with love, fun, passion and twerking. If you never got a chance meet Bonqueisha on a Friday night playing cards you definitely missed out. On January 10, 2018 Tameka gained her wings. God knows and understand how much we all love her, but he loves her more. Now she’s pain free from anything that’s hurting or worrying her. She was an amazing mother, daughter, sister, niece, aunt, cousin and friend. The many memories we all have of her will keep her spirit going forever.

She preceded in death by her great grandma: Mary E. Leonard.

To cherish her memories her sons: Johnathan Brazzel, Iasiah Fulmer and Aundre Gilmore; daughter: Khole Robinson; mother: Beverly (Clarence) Gibson; father: Tony A. McCoy; grandmother: Mary Lee Leonard; grandfather: Johnny “Brauh” McCoy; sisters: Thaundra McCoy, Kearia Gibson, Angela Stukes, Shakemia Leonard, Shykeema Dickerson, Samaria Hunt, Zavearria McCoy and Kimorria McCoy. Brothers: Tony McCoy Jr., Clarence Gibson 3rd., Delanta McCoy, Daquan Gibson, Antonio Dickerson, Dominique Gibson, Torriey Dickerson, Jordan McCoy, and Tony McCoy 3rd, As well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews-cousins and friends.
