Acknowledgement

The family extends their deepest gratitude to all of you for your prayers, service, support and kind words during our time of great sorrow. We pray that God will repay you according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus.

"I'M FREE"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee. God wanted me now; HE SET ME FREE!

Obituary

Malik Jihon-Jamaal Minter was born September 20, 2000 to Ebony J. Minter and the late Michael E. Broadus, Jr. He was educated in the public schools of the District of Columbia and Prince Georges County, Maryland.

At an early age, Malik accepted Christ. Although he was barely able to read, he knew and understood the Bible. He was baptized at Johnson Memorial Baptist Church.

Malik had a passion for football. This led him to join the Glenarden Bulldogs football team. He also loved watching football. His favorite team was the Washington Football team. Malik was a die-hard fan and watched every Sunday and Monday night.

His other passion was music, specifically rap. He had a huge love for the rap world. So much so he perfected his craft and created numerous mix tapes. He was known as "King Kaydoe".

Malik was extremely intelligent, intuitive, wise, hard-working and a loving son. He was generous with everything he had. There was nothing he would not do for his family or close friends. At the time of his passing, he managed three Domino's stores. Malik was an outstanding employee, which resulted in him receiving numerous awards and plaques. Malik also assisted many others with employment. That is just the type of amazing person Malik was. Respected and loved by many. He will be truly and sorely missed.

Malik is survived by his son, Malik Jihon-Jamaal, Jr. His loving, devoted mother, Ebony J. Minter. His brothers NeQuan Minter & Michael Broadus; his little sister, Shiloh; maternal grandparents, Jacqueline Makinde and Rodney McCorkle; paternal grandparents, Michael and Sidonia Broadus; great-grandmother, Alice Minter; four great-aunts and a host of cousins and friends. As well as three special friends, Biniah Carter, Malik Jackson and Tommi Cosby.

Benediction and Recessional

No time to cry. Don't shed a tear. I am with God, in spirit I am here. I kept the faith. My spirit is light.

I am at peace now, I fought the good fight. Love always, Malik
