

Well I'm out in the wilde, my pony and I
But there's nobody around
I'm just a child beneath the dark blue sky
The storm is comin'

I'm out in the wilde
And I don't know why I can't hear a sound
I'm just a child, but my pony can fly
We better get runnin'

Run through the trees
Run through the sand
Run little pony, run across the land
Run over the mountains, down to the sea
Into the water where we can be free
Run little pony
Run little child
Back to the wilde

Well I'm back in the wilde, my pony and I
There's still nobody around
I'm just a child; the sky is blue
The storm never came
I'm out in the wilde and now I know why
I can hear somethin'
I'm just a child, but my pony can fly
It's an endless game

Run through the trees
Run through the sand
Run little pony, run across the land
Run over the mountains, down to the sea
Into the water where we can be free
Run little pony
Run little child

In Appreciation

The family wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude to all who reached out during this time. Very special thanks to Cliff Grua for coordinating so much, to Jacqui Price, Cyndy Sampley, Dot Broome and Sara Pittman for the meal, Toni Busha and Susan Edwards for the soft drinks, Callie Pettey for the ice cream bar, Linda Grua for the beautiful table flowers, Joe Clarke for his wizardry in the studio and to the Massadona band - Ken Miller, Cliff Grua, Joey Maggard, Joe Busha and sound man Lance Richens - for the live music and good vibrations. Big thank you to Becky Boren for buying rooms for the out of town band members. The outpouring of generosity has been humbling and touching to say the least.

Vicki would like to thank her other siblings- Gina, Joe and Larry - for their huge support. And on all their behalf, untold gratitude to Rebecca Dawn for sacrificing her own needs in order to provide the care Terry needed these last difficult months. Bless her heart and every part of her being.

So much love and appreciation for Terry and the impact he had on our lives. Thank you, Turbo. Thanks to each and every one of you for showing up and honoring him. 🍷 “To Skinny” 🍷
