

Mother of Mine

You make me shine,
That's part of the reason I wrote his rhyme.
You teach me wrong from right,
You guide me toward the light.
You've given me knowledge,
So that one day I will attend college.
You're there for me everyday,
And I don't want to lose you in anyway.

Jakayla Rashana Chappell was born on December 11, 1998, to Katrina Fulton and Jermaine Chappell in Temple, Texas. Jakayla graduated from Marlin High School on May 26, 2017, where she was a member of the M.H.S Marching Band and Varsity Volleyball team. Prior to graduation, Jakayla enlisted into the National Guard.

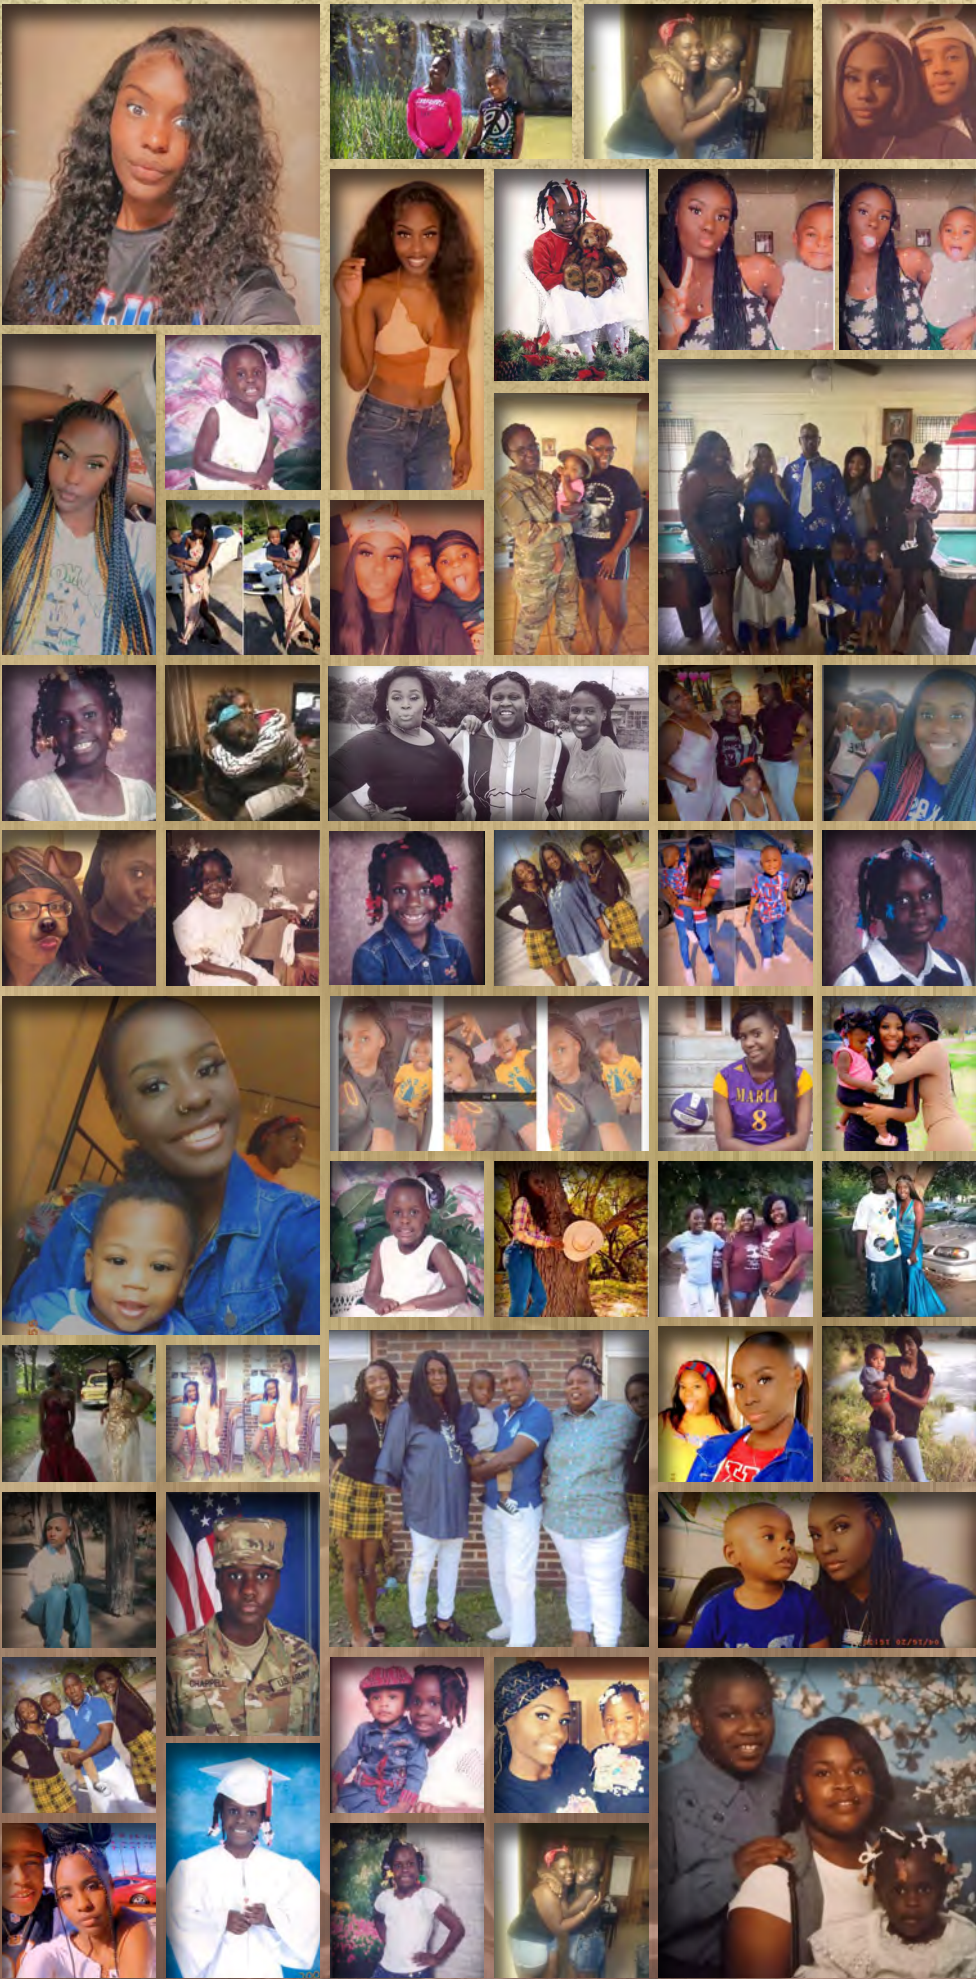

In her early youth, Jakayla became a member of Greater Bethany Baptist Church where she used her love for music and beautiful voice to minister to the congregation as the Youth Choir Director.

Jakayla lived life freely and unapologetically. She enjoyed spending time with her family and loved ones. In her free time, she could've been found on the trails with her trail riding group, in front of the mirror perfecting her love for makeup and hair.

Upon on her departure from this earthly world, Jakayla worked at Mexia Supported Living Center, while attending college online pursuing a degree in Child Psychology.

Jakayla is preceded in death by her maternal great-grandparents, Matt and Annie Bailey; La'Terrance Johnson (Godbrother); and unborn twin children.

She leaves to cherish her son, Kaysen Cole Suiters; her partner, Miesha Banks (Marlin, Texas); parents, L.C and Katrina Fulton (Marlin, Texas); father, Jermaine Chappell (Waco, Texas); Godparents, Durrell and Clara Ward (Marlin, Texas); grandparents, Charles and Rosey Davis (Marlin, Texas); grandmother, Patricia Blackwell; siblings, Micque Norman (Marlin, Texas), Jelan Chappell (Marlin, Texas), Sherrell Ward (College Station, Texas), Camellia Ward (Huntsville, Texas), JaNasha Brown (Austin, Texas), Sasha Chappell (Waco, Texas), Jessica Goode (Waco, Texas), Khyrek Holder (Waco, Texas), Jordan Fulton (Bryan, Texas); aunts, Latrina (Charles) Montgomery (Hewitt, Texas), Nyisha Davis (Killeen, Texas); and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
