Her Story

On October 20, 1953, a beautiful baby girl was born. Brenda Kay Maxwell was born to Delilia Hayes and Willie Lee Baker.

At an early age Brenda accepted Christ at Greater Providence Baptist Church.

Brenda attended Booker T. Washington in her early school-age years and graduated from Marlin High School in 1973. She began working at the Marlin Turkey Plant and it became the Onion Plant years later. Brenda received her CNA license and began working as a Certified Nursing Assistant in Bremond and Marlin Nursing Homes for many years and afterwards she began working with Home Health Care. Brenda began working at the Marlin County Courthouse during these last few months until her health failed.

Brenda fell in love and married her high school sweetheart, Joseph Henry Maxwell, in June 1971. To this union two children were born. The first born was Angela Antionette Maxwell Parker on November 15, 1971. Several years later, Joseph Henry Maxwell II was born on July 9, 1979.

She was preceded in death by grandchildren, Desmond DePaul Maxwell, and DeVonte' Sir'Ron Parker; stepfather, L. C. McGowan; mother, Delilia McGowan; and son, Joseph Henry Maxwell II.

She leaves those to cherish her memory: daughter, Angela Maxwell Parker of Dallas, Texas; grandchildren: granddaughters, Chelsea and Essence-Jordai' Parker of Dallas, Texas, and Briella Cohee-Maxwell of Converse, Texas; grandsons, Brandon Mawell of Midland Texas, Johnny Parker III of Dallas, Texas, and Kelstin Maxwell of Tyler, Texas; sisters, Marye Dimerson Jackson (James) and Marilyn Freeman both of Marlin; brothers, Clifton Davis (Carroll) of Washington, D.C., Earnest 'Charles' McGowan of Groesbeck, Texas, Nathaniel (Nate) McGowan, Robert (Lobo) McGowan and Raymond McGowan of Marlin, Texas; and an aunt, Rosie Simpson of Marlin, Texas. Brenda has a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Now I know why
you always told me
to be strong.
You knew that
one day I would need
the strength to bear
your loss.
To my mother in heaven, thank you for always loving me and guiding me. Even though you are no
longer here with me
I can still feel your love guiding me. You are always in my heart. I love you and miss you dearly.
