

*Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.*

*Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.*

*I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.*

*I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.*

*I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.*

*Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.*

*Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.*

*Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.*

*I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.*

Obituary

Warren Jones was born on September 18, 1935, to the union of James and Georgia B. Jones in Louisville, Kentucky.

Warren loved the Lord and was baptized at the First Baptist Church in Jeffersontown, Kentucky.

After graduating from high school, Warren attended college, where he studied Criminal Justice. He went on to serve his country as a member of the Air Force and Army for twenty years. After Warren retired from the Army, he enjoyed working for the prison system in Sugar Land, Texas.

Warren loved to bowl and won many trophies playing the game. He also enjoyed traveling and the beauty of the outdoors.

The Angel of the Lord came for Warren on June 21, 2020. His kindness and laughter will always be remembered.

Warren was preceded in death by his parents, son and sister.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Wilma Jean Jones; his children, Jermaine Lamont Jones, Miquell Penquite and Beverly Jones; his brother, Roger Jones; and a host of other relatives and friends.
