

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It is all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me but let me go.

Life Reflections

On Monday, June 29, at approximately 12:14 pm Violee Tolbert Jr. passed away at Providence Health Center.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

Praise to the God of All Comfort

*3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort,*

*4 who comforts us in all our troubles,
so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.*

Violee Tolbert, Jr. was the second child born to Violee Tolbert, Sr. and Cora Lee Tolbert on June 29, 1952. He accepted Christ at an early age and served as a faithful member and deacon at Bethany Missionary Baptist Church until his death. He found joy singing in the Bethany Male Chorus for over two decades. Violee worked in the church in any capacity, wherever there was a need.

Violee attended Carver High School in Waco, Texas. He was extremely creative and loved to work with his hands, being a builder of all things and an avid artist. He loved to collect movies and stay up late into the night watching them. Violee loved life and he knew a little something about everything, all you had to do was ask him and he would have an answer. To know Violee was to love him and his family loved him.

Violee was preceded in death by his parents, Violee, Sr. and Cora Lee Tolbert; and his brother, David Tolbert. He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife of forty-four years, Veloris Tolbert; one sister, Glenna Flowers (Bobby) Manos (Waco); three brothers-in-law, Howard Talton, James Talton (Marlin) and Albert (Alma) Manigo (Waco); two nieces, Janella Flowers (San Antonio) and Rayven Manigo (Waco); three nephews, Andre Flowers, Omar Flowers, and Kirkland Manigo (Waco); a loyal and devoted friend, Kevin Sanders, which he called his brother; and a multitude of other nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
