Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. May God forever bless each of you.

Special thanks: to Ruby Neil Mango Phillips and the Staff of Hilltop on Main Retirement Center in Meridian, Texas for your love and care.

The Obituary

Carol Dyann Davis, most called her "TUDA," passed away peacefully early Monday morning July 26, 2021, from complications of a stroke.

On April 13, 1959, O.W. and Ida Davis welcomed a beautiful baby girl, the youngest of three siblings (Michael and Linda Davis) in Mineola, Texas.

Carol attended Marlin High School Class of 1978 but due to an altercation she graduated class 1979.

Carol loved to have fun. She was outgoing. She was funny, always smiling. Carol loved to eat and some would say she was a fighter, too. From being the Homecoming Queen as well as an avid track runner, her presence was known.

Carol loved to love on people. For many years she worked at the Falls Hotel in Marlin, Texas; The Style Shop in Marlin, Texas; and preceding her sickness, she was a Volunteer at the Goodwill in Houston, Texas.

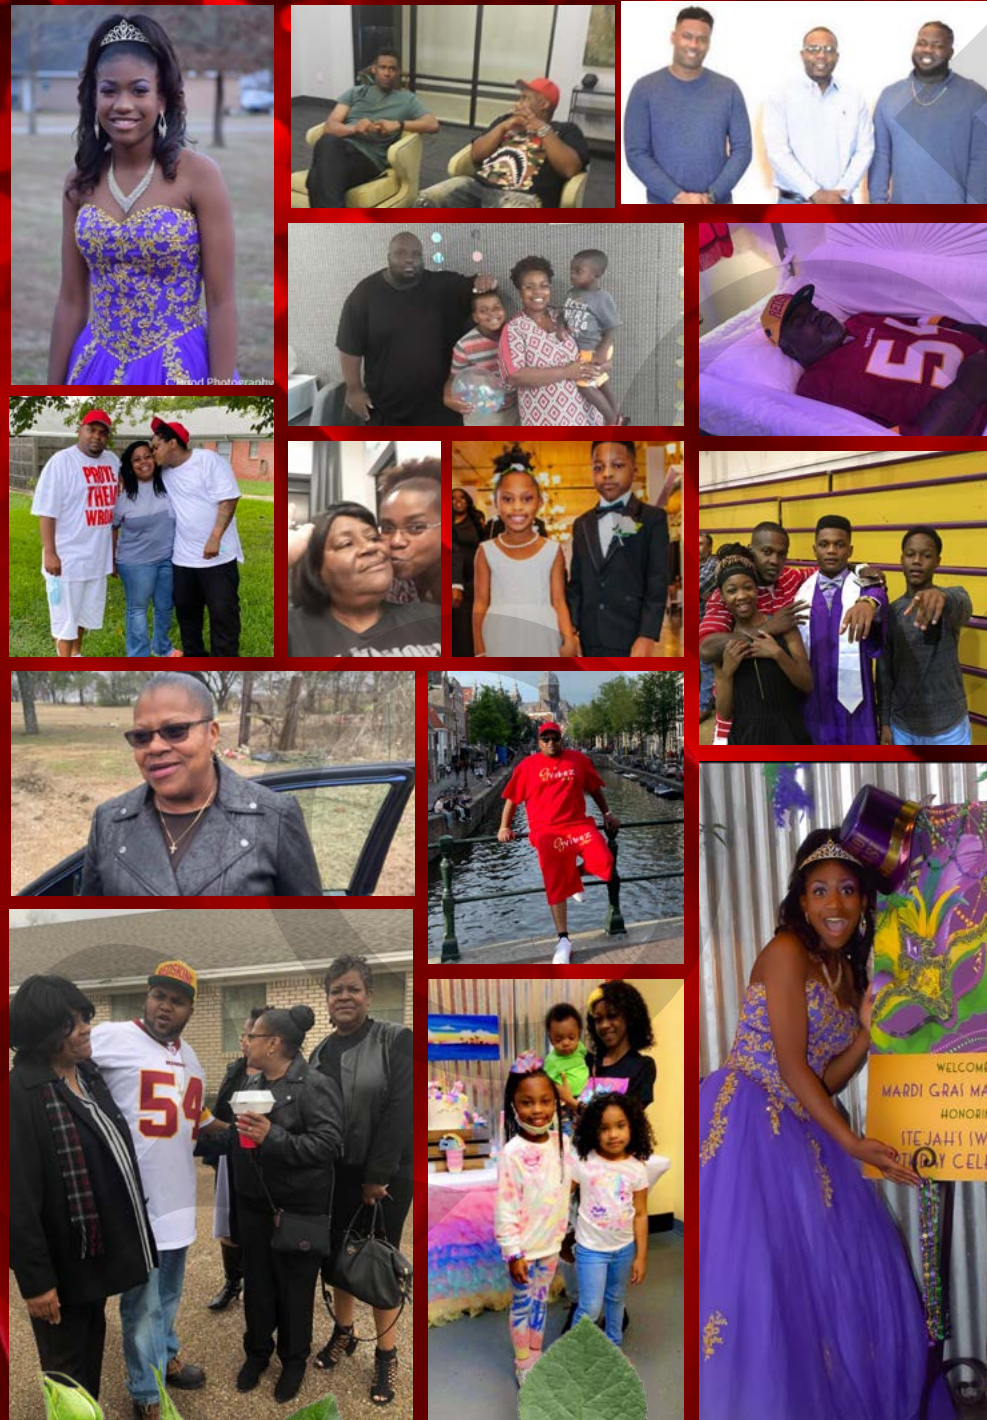

Carol loved God and her church. She was longtime visitor at Grace Temple COGIC in Marlin, Texas under the leadership of Bishop Gregory Jones and later she moved her membership to Lakewood Church in Houston Texas unfer the leadership of Pastor Joel Osteen.

Carol lived her life to the fullest. She lived her life with no regrets. She did things her way, and then she got it right. Among her last words, she was giving God all the honor, the glory, and the praise.

She was preceded in death by her father and mother, O.W. and Ida Davis; aunt, LaVern Collins Fuller; and cousin, James Purvis.

Carol D. Davis leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Stephen Davis (Pewee) of Ft. Worth, Texas and Stefon Davis of Houston, Texas; one daughter, Itallian Davis Rogers (Anthony) of Dallas, Texas; nine grandchildren: Stejah Davis, Stefonique Davis, Stefon Davis, Stefoni Davis, Donnell Davis, Daecarius Davis, Leeyiah Davis, Baylor Rogers and Greyson Rogers; one great-grandchild, Z'yaire; two uncles, Jerry Collins and James Collins; one aunt, Christine Collins Jones; cousins, Lawrence Jones (Tameria), Tara Walker (Kim), Donna Collins Tuner, Connie Collins and Bianca Collins; special aunt, Willie B. Johnson; special niece and nephew, Monica Johnson and Chiminah Johnson; the Hayes family; and a host of family and friends.
