

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an after glow

of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo

whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing

times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who

grieve, to dry before the sun

Of happy memories that I leave

When life is done.

Acknowledgment

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair;
perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. May God forever bless each of you.*

The Life, the Legacy, Our Queen

Dorothy Faye Jefferson Vaughan was born on November 15, 1950, in Waxahachie, TX. She was the oldest child of Tommy and Nelda Jefferson.

She started her early years in Kosse Elementary and finished her education at Groesbeck High School.

She accepted Christ at an early age and attended Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Kosse, TX, under the leadership of Rev. J.C. Boone. In her twenties, she moved to Liberal, Kansas, where she met and married Jimmy Shelton. In this union, they had three beautiful daughters: Wanda, Lisa, and LaMikia. While raising her children, she worked many years at Washington Elementary School in Liberal. After her children were grown, she decided to change careers and worked for Liberal Good Samaritan as a restorative aid. Later in life, she remarried Joseph Vaughn until their marriage was dissolved. Then, in December of 2010, she decided to move back home to be with her family.

Dorothy had a beautiful spirit and a sweet disposition about life. She was one who never complained during her time of trouble or sickness.

Her favorite things to do were eating Mexican food, watching Perry Mason, game shows, joyriding, and going to the park with Kobe.

Dorothy is preceded in death by her father, Tommy Jefferson, Sr.; brother, Kenneth Jefferson; and daughters, Lisa Holmes and Wanda Love.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her precious memories: one daughter, Lamikia Shelton; three stepchildren, Angie Mobley, Sandra Overall, and Joseph Vaughan, Jr. A loving mother, Nelda Jefferson; and siblings, Shirley (James), Virginia, Thomas Wayne, Helen, Jimmy (Cindy), Kirklin Darrel (Linda), Caroline, Rhonda and Tommy, Jr., (Holly). She leaves behind 10 beautiful grandchildren, 3 adorable great-grandchildren, a special niece, Tanya McCoy, and a host of other nieces, nephews, and special friends. She also leaves behind Henry Edward, Prentiss (Dorothy), Herbert, Jimmy, William, Minus, and Gloria.
