Please

Please don't leave me, I'll feel so alone
 You raised me, I called your house home
 Please don't leave me, I need you here,
 Who will I cry to? Who will wipe my tears?
 Please don't leave me, I miss our shows
 I miss sleeping in your bed; I miss helping you fold clothes
 Please don't leave me; just one more time hold me close
 Until I have to say goodbye;
 Please don't leave me, writing this made me cry.
 Please never die...please don't say goodbye

We couldn't begin to count the times
 She tolerated our moods,
 Consoled our heartbreaks & disappointments
 Endured our ups and downs,
 Listened to words confused by tears
 And just simply understood
 For no other reason than because she loved us.
 The years hold precious memories;
 But most of all they hold growth.
 In a way, we grew up together...
 Mom is our definition of a special person...
 Fantastic...Exceptional...Unique...Enduring!
 She filled our lives with Happiness
 And sweet feelings that we will
 Carry in our hearts forever.

Obituary

Mildred Yvonne Johnson was born on December 16, 1940 to the late Grady Van and Ethel Alston Johnson of Siler City, NC where she spent her formative years. She was called to her Heavenly Home on August 22, 2019.

She attended Chatham High School in Chatham County graduating in 1958.

She joined Evans Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church at an early age where she attended faithfully up until her death. She served on many committees.

She started her employment with Sterling Clothing Store moving on to the Poultry Plant. From there to textiles retiring from Master Craft Fabrics. She also volunteered at the PTA Thrift Shop for over 30 years.

She was preceded in death by one son, Rickey Johnson, a granddaughter, two great-grandchildren, three brothers and one sister.

She leaves to cherish her memories: three daughters, Sharon, Antoinette (Norman), and Takia; two sons, Darryl (Beverly), and Fred (Emma); a faithful daughter-in-law, Renee; three brothers, Leon, Joe (Mildred) and Cedell; four sisters, Dorothy, Barbara, Carol (Raymond) and Helen (Jack); fourteen grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
