

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.*

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:*

*for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Obituary

JIMMY WAYNE PUGH (Jimmy) was born in Chatham County on July 24, 1967 to the late Charles Pugh and Pauline Pugh. He departed this life on Monday, September 16, 2019.

Jimmy attended Chatham Central High School. He loved to cook and help others throughout the community.

Jimmy grew up as a member of Union Grove A.M.E. Zion Church in Bear Creek, NC.

Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by one brother, Darryl Pugh (Patricia) and one sister, Malinda Headen.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his sister, Bertina Pugh; nieces, Melisa White, Jessica White, Kya Pugh, Mya Pugh, Iya White, Ida Thomas and Lashonda Dark; nephews, Antonio Headen, Larry White, Tre Edwards, Dre Pugh and Sean Wilkerson; and a host of great nieces, great nephews, other relatives and friends.
