

Pallbearers

Friends of the Family

Floral Attendants

Friends of the Family

Acknowledgements

There are those whose lives death cannot diminish...

Their love radiates forever,

In the hearts of family and friends.

We felt that love in your thoughtfulness.

~ Thank You So Much ~

Professional Services Entrusted to: Knotts and Son Funeral Home

1501 M.L.K. Jr. Blvd.

Siler City, NC 27344

(919) 742-4602

www.knottsandsonfuneralhome.com

knottsandsonfuneralhome@gmail.com

*A Celebration of the Life of
and in Loving Memory of*

Lucille Scotton Currie

Cherry Scotton Marsh

04/26/1932 - 09/20/2019

10/24/1956 - 09/20/2019

Thursday, September 26, 2019 - 1:00 p.m.

Church of God of Prophecy

902 W. Swannanoa Avenue

Liberty, North Carolina

Reverend Helen Glover, Officiating

The Fallen Limb

*A limb has fallen from the family tree,
I keep hearing a voice that says,
"Grieve Not For Me."
Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I am counting on you
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
Mind mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.*

The Order of Service

Prelude

Processional Clergy and Family

Hymn Choir

Solo..... Carlton Brooks

Scriptures

Old Testament..... Sharon Glover

New Testament Sheryln White

Prayer of Comfort..... Mike White and Andrea Scotton

Selection Cecile Jordan

Acknowledgements and Obituary..... Marguerit Wormley

Resolution..... Hazel Brooks

Remarks Limit Two Minutes, Please

Reflections on Lucille..... Rev. Barry Gray

Reflections on Cherry Apostle John Hawks

Apostle Joel Ware

Apostle Kevin White

Solo Derez White

Eulogy Rev. Helen Glover

Recessional..... Choir

Interment

Rocky River Baptist Church

7516 Silk Hope Liberty Road

Siler City, North Carolina 27344

Reflections on the Life of Mrs. Lucille Scotton Currie

Mrs. Lucille Scotton Currie was born April 26, 1932 to the late Sam and Nottie Dark. She departed this life unexpectedly on Friday, September 20, 2019.

Lucille was a devoted and loving mother, sister, grandmother and friend. She loved her family like no other, always willing to go without so someone else could have. She looked forward to her family coming together any time that they possibly could and once they were together you could always hear her saying when it was time to depart, "Well, you ain't got to be in such a big hurry." She was the glue that kept the family together.

Lucille attended a local community school and was taught by Mrs. Mable Bowden near the family's home. She was later educated at Chatham County Training School which became Chatham High School. She was a housekeeper and homemaker early in her career while later retiring after 30 years of service with Townsend Foods.

Lucille was a devout Christian and dedicated member of Rocky River Missionary Baptist Church beginning at an early age and attended regularly until the end. She served as Deaconess, on the Usher Board, Missionary Auxiliaries and in other capacities throughout her time in the church.

Lucille and her youngest daughter, Cherry, gained their wings together. Lucille was also preceded in death by her daughter, Ann Edwards, her brothers, Jerome Dark, Willis Dark and Wade Dark, and her sisters, Ruth Patterson and Mary Rodgers.

Lucille leaves to cherish her precious memories: her daughter, Betty Jo Scotton; her sons, Jessie Scotton, Jr. and Phil Lee Scotton; a special grandchild, Tanga Scotton; brother Harvey Dark; sisters Inez Glover and Geniece Eubanks; nine grandchildren; thirty-two great-grandchildren; nine great-great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Reflections on the Life of Mrs. Cherry Scotton Marsh

Cherry Lynn Scotton Marsh was born October 24, 1956 to the late Jessie Lee and Lucille Scotton Currie. Cherry graduated from Jordan-Matthews High School in 1975 and went on to attend Dudley School of Cosmetology and became a licensed hairstylist. Although her spiritual beginnings and her start of her relationship with the Lord began at Rocky River Baptist Church, the Lord later led her to the Church of God of Prophecy (COGOP) in Siler City, NC where she gave her life to the Lord under the leadership of Rev. Marie Siler on October 18, 1981.

Cherry attended Central Carolina Community College in Sanford, NC and Asheboro Community College to enhance her marketability for continual gainful employment. She became employed by a number of different employers, where she also continued her course work studies at UNC-Chapel Hill to continue to increase her employability. Due to her experience and continual educational pursuit, she was offered a position at UNC-Greensboro as a contracts and grants administrator. It was during this time she answered the call of God in all its fullness to leave her job and go into full time ministry.

Cherry was called to Ministry in 2000 under Dr. Bruce Scotton Ministry and later accepted the calling to establish her Ministry. Then she attended different courses and classes to enhance her Ministry including the School of Theology. She was the founder of the Church of the True and Living God and Ministries in Siler City and Eden, NC, which is now New Divine Destiny Ministries, Burlington, NC. While shepherding her own congregation, and her works being the witness of an Apostolic call and anointing, she was consecrated an Apostle.

Throughout her faith walk, Apostle Marsh has served in the following capacities: State Evangelist of COGOP, Evangelist Director, Pastoral Aide Director, Youth Life Team Director, Adult Sunday School Teacher, Treasurer, Usher, and Choir Member. Since becoming a Pastor and Overseer, and because of her continuously, faithfully answering her call, Apostle Marsh had the opportunity to provide a consistent broadcast on the Word Network Channel.

Apostle Marsh was a true Woman of Faith who loved the Lord with all her heart, and was willing to reach and teach the lost at whatever the cost. She operated in the Five-Fold Ministry, and throughout, she continued to be a loving and giving Woman of God. Although her love for the Lord could not be matched, she held a special love for her husband, Danny Marsh after 37 years of marriage. She loved her children, grandchildren, family and friends. She was always telling everyone what she could about Jesus; always willing and trying to reach souls for the Lord and was willing to do whatever the Lord led her to do. Anyone who met her could testify for the fact she had an uplifting spirit that exuded God's grace, offering the experience of her beautiful heart from the inside out.

Apostle Marsh was preceded in death by: her father; her beloved son, Jeffery Lynn Scotton; sisters, Ann Edwards and Patricia Alston; and just as in the beginning days of her life, she transitioned from flesh to spirit and walked from labor to reward with her mother.

Apostle Marsh leaves to cherish her memories: her beloved husband of 37 years, Elder Danny Marsh of Greensboro, NC; son Prentiss Scotton (Andrea) of Chapel Hill, NC; daughters, Aerial Alston (Tracy) of Siler City, NC and Candace Marsh of Greensboro, NC; twenty grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; sisters, Betty Scotton of Siler City, NC and Secilla Slade of Burlington, NC; brothers, Phil Scotton and Jessie Scotton both of Siler City, NC; special spiritual sons, Apostle John Hawks and drummer John Eric Manuel; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends that she loved dearly.