The family is most grateful for acts of kindness during the loss of our beloved. The overwhelming support will never be forgotten. God forever bless you all.

If Flowers Grow In Heaven

If flowers grow in heaven, Lord
Please pick a bunch for us,
Place them in our Memaw's arms and tell her they're from us.
Tell her that we love and miss her
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
We do it every day.
But there is an ache within our hearts
that will never go away.
In Loving Memory
Of Our Memaw,
Bernice McSwain

*We are sending a dove to Heaven
With a parcel on its wings
Be careful when you open it
It's full of beautiful things
Inside are a million kisses
Wrapped in a million hugs
To say how much we miss you
And to send you all our love
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.*

Obituary

Bernice McSwain was born in Siler City, North Carolina to the late Estella McSwain and Glen Harris on March 3, 1952. She departed this life February 6, 2020 at Central Carolina Hospital in Sanford, North Carolina.

She attended Chatham County Schools and worked a few different jobs in Siler City for a number of years. The majority of her adult life she had an in-home daycare.

Bernice attended the PACE Senior Care Center during the weekdays. She enjoyed several activities there; playing bingo was what she loved the most.

Bernice loved her jewelry, dressing nice and smelling good. She loved being glamorous. She spoiled her grandchildren whom she loved dearly.

She was caring and loving to everyone she met. You never saw her without a smile. Before her illness impaired her, cooking was one of her favorite things to do. She also loved to sew.

Bernice leaves to cherish her loving memories: daughters, Anita McSwain, Loretta McSwain (Maurice), Dana McSwain (Malik) and Andrea McSwain (Timmy), all of Siler City, North Carolina; one son, Tracy McSwain (Renita) of Williams, Arizona; an aunt, Evelyn McSwain of Siler City, North Carolina; nine grandchildren, Adrienna, Breyana, Deandria, TJ, Taishayla, Kayin, Jaliyah, Markel and Cassidy; and a host of other relatives and friends.
