Prayer of Comfort

Heavenly Father,

At this moment nothing seems to be able to help

The loss I feel after my mother's passing.

My heart is broken and my spirit mourns.

All I know is that your grace is sufficient

And there is comfort knowing

She is with you in heaven.

This day, this hour, moment by moment

I choose to lean on you;

For when I am at my weakest

Your strength is strongest.

I pour out my grief to you

And praise you that on one glorious day,

When all suffering is extinguished

And love has conquered...

We shall walk together.

Amen

Obituary

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever."

SIGNORA BULLOCK BELLAMY was a great woman of God, a peace maker and a problem solver, a person that everyone loved and a person that was hard not to love, a lady that loved to talk. Even if you did not feel like talking, Signora was going to get her point across. She was a wonderful cook and people could not resist her potato salad and all the warm, hearty meals she made. She was the G.O.A.T. (Greatest Of All Time)!

Signora was born in Queens, New York and raised in Brooklyn by her mother and father and grew up with her three siblings.

Signora was preceded in death by her mother and father, her only brother, her sister-mother, Marjorie Bullock, father, Joseph Smith, her brother, Lawrence Bullock and her sister, Patricia Malachi.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her loving husband of twenty-five years, John Jr. Bellamy; her four loving children, Synthenia Bullock, Tamara Bullock, Shareffa Malachi and Xavier Bellamy; her eleven grandchildren, Syquallin Perry, Synjavien Gist, Kyonna Bullock, Blossom Gist, Ronnie Gist, Kaitlyn Bellamy, Lyla Duren, Xzaviyana Bellamy, Kash Bellamy, Xadyn Bellamy and Uzziah Malachi; and a host of nieces, nephews (too many to name) and close friends.
