Our Forever Songbird

*As I sit and listen to the many stories of the past I'm reminded of a wonderful woman who'd undoubtedly give her last A woman whose love for her family exuded with every action Whose voice could lift any person up, who served with unwavering passion
A devoted mother, wife, family member and friend Someone who'd go above and beyond, your bounds contained no end
A favorite amongst so many Blessings and favors, you selflessly supplied plenty There are not nearly enough words that could address your impact Or even how you spoke life into others that kept our souls in tact Instructor, student, trainer, singer, songwriter, spiritual mentor and so much more Where others may have paved the way
You created many opened doors
Your love, your care, your presence will be missed
You are now singing with closest loved ones, in our hearts you'll ALWAYS exist Watch over us as we proceed through this life Wrap your arms around us as we experience strife
The closeness we're known for and representation in the works we do Will only enhance as products of you!

*Rest peacefully our beautiful, beloved angel!
Your pride and attentiveness in raising us has always been the fuel that causes us to honor you!
Your Beloved Husband, Billy Foxx*

Obituary

Brenda Carol was born on December 16, 1960 in Chatham County, NC to the late Carl F. Wilkerson and Gennell S. Wilkerson. She peacefully transitioned to her eternal rest on April 5, 2020 at the age of 59 years old.

Brenda lived a rewarding life that has been captured by her love for singing the gospel, working in evangelism and pastoral ministry, and engaging as a trainer and educator in career fields such as early childhood education and adult education. Growing up, Brenda was a student in Chatham County Schools and graduated high school in 1979. After her high school years, she went on to get her Associate of Applied Science Degree in Early Childhood from Central Carolina Community College, her Bachelor of Science Degree in Early Childhood Education from Mt. Olive College, and her Master of Arts Degree in Education (Adult Education and Training) from University of Phoenix. In addition to her academic endeavors, Brenda also had 17 years of experience working in the field of early childhood and gained credentials/certifications from institutions such as Wheelock Graduate School, Frank Porter Graham Child Development Institute at UNC Chapel Hill, North Carolina Division of Child Development, and North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services.

Brenda became a licensed minister through the Church of God of Prophecy and also attended the Journey of a Lifetime Institute in Chatham County under the leadership of Reverend Bobby Siler to grow in ministry. She was in ministry for over 20 years and was a member of Jesus World Soul Center in Southern Pines, NC where she was affectionately known as Elect Lady Foxx. Brenda and her husband, Billy Foxx, have been married for 39 years and have been partners in ministry together. Through their union, they have three children: Krystal, Shanae, and Ricky whom they have supported wholeheartedly in all their endeavors. Brenda took pride in raising her children and building up her community. She traveled extensively around North Carolina and other states where she served as a songstress (often called "songbird") and evangelist to minister the gospel of Jesus Christ. She and her husband also led ministry efforts at local rest homes and community events. Evangelist Foxx has been pivotal in helping others establish their ministries through seed sowing and her ministry leadership. Brenda was indeed a phenomenal woman and will be sorely missed.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Carl F. Wilkerson and Gennell S. Wilkerson, and by her brothers, Carl and Brian Wilkerson.

She is survived by her husband, Billy J. Foxx, and her three children: Krystal, Shanae, and Ricky. She is also survived by her brother, Anthony Wilkerson of Siler City, NC, and her two sisters, Delena Wilkerson of Oak Park, IL and Bonita Moffitt of Siler City, NC. She also leaves behind her in-laws (Sally, Audrey, Susan, Eva, James, and Peggy), aunts (special aunt Carolyn), uncles, nieces and nephews, friends, church families, and colleagues.
