The beautiful memories of the life of our beloved will live forever in our hearts. Also lasting will be the outpouring of love and concern from the many friends who expressed themselves in love and kindness in our time of sorrow and, in happier times throughout the years. Our gratitude for Clem's life and your friendship is boundless. As the Lord blessed Clem, may He continue to bless each of you.

Idk how to feel or what to think or what to say. My teacher my best friend. The person I look up to is gone. He taught me everything, he made me into the man I'm am today. I love you so much pops. Thank you for all the memories and lessons. This mess hit hard yo. Rest in heaven king , you was a good man.

A Fallen Limb

A Limb has fallen from the family tree,

I keep hearing a voice that says,

"Grieve not for me"

Remember the best times,

the laughter, the song

The good life I lived

while I was strong.

Continue my heritage,

I am counting on you,

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease,

my soul is at rest,

Remembering all,

how I was truly blessed.

Continue traditions,

no matter how small,

Go on with your life,

do not worry about falls,

I miss you all dearly,

so keep up your chin,

Until the day when we are together again.

Obituary

Clem Junior Wiley "Clemkaddlehopper" entered the lives of Earl Wiley and Arzell C. Wiley, both deceased on February 3, 1945. He departed this life to his eternal reward on June 1, 2021.

Clem graduated from Chatham High School in Siler City, NC in 1964. He was employed at several places during his lifetime; just to name a few: Palm Harbor Homes, Brower's and Ramtex. Clem was an avid card player.

Clem joined Evans Chapel AME Zion Church at an early age. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, cousin and friend. He had a special love for his grandchildren whom he enjoyed interacting with. He was very protective over his sisters.

Clem was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Thomas Wiley and Edward Crutchfield.

Clem's precious memories will be cherished by: his loving wife of 53 years, Doris Wiley of the home; one son, Clement Wiley of Siler City, NC; one daughter, Martina Wiley of Asheboro, NC; five sisters, Brenda Snipes of Siler City, NC, Cathy Glover (Dennis) of Siler City, NC, Betty Spinks (Jeff) of Sanford, NC, Earlene Glover (James) of Salinas, CA and Kimberly Wiley of Siler City, NC; one brother-in-law, James Staley (Ruby) of Siler City, NC; five grandchildren, Bridgett Wiley, Brandon Farrar, Andre Wiley, Jabril Wiley, Tatyana Wiley and JaKeim Wiley; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
