*You're a miracle to mea special gift from God above
Whose life is a reflection of the beauty of God's love.
You're a blessing in my world-
a gently soul, unique and rare,
Who always lifts my jspirits
with your tender loving care.
You're everything I'd hoped the one I LOVE Wwould ever be,
And that's why you will always be a miracle to me
--From your loving wife*

Obituary

Barron V. Scott, 67, loving husband and father, departed from us on March 13, 2022, in Durham, North Carolina surrounded by his loved ones.

Barron, lovingly known as "Scotty", was born in New Bern, North Carolina to Gracie Mae Banks and Smith Scott II on October 1, 1954. He graduated from J.T. Barber High School in June of 1969, afterwards attending North Carolina Central University, where he became a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. While attending college, Barron met the love of his life, Janice Scott. They married on June 12, 1982 and went on to build a wonderful life and family together in Durham. Professionally, Barron worked many years at Leggett & Myer Tobacco Company, before serving with the Durham County Sheriff's Department as a corrections officer. He worked for the department for 10 years, eventually retiring to dedicate his time and attention to those he loved. If you knew Scotty, you know that he absolutely loved to read, collect comic books, and spend time with his family and their beloved pets. He adored his family. Scotty was also a great friend to many, as he never knew a stranger. He always had a listening ear and provided wise counsel to all who needed it – no matter your circumstance or situation. He always gave of himself before he gave to himself.

Barron is preceded in death by his grandmother (Rosa Lee Brown), his mother (Gracie M. Banks), his fathers (Smith Scott and James Banks) and his brother (Smith "Tony" Scott).

Barron is survived by his devoted and loving wife (Janice Scott), his daughter (Olivia Scott), his son (Aaron Scott), his siblings (Shenetta N. Scott, Gerald D. Scott, Aquanetta J. Copper, and Cecedrick R. Scott), and a host of family and friends.

I Carry Your Heart With Me

By E.E. Cummings

*I carry your heart with me (I carry it in my heart)
I am never without it (anywhere I go you go, my dear;
And whatever is done by only me is your doing, my darling)
I fear no fate (for you are my fate, my sweet)
I want no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true)
and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you
Here is the deepest secret nobody knows
(Here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud
And the sky of the sky of a tree called life;
Which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide)
And this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart
I carry your heart (I carry it in my heart)*

With Love,
Your Daughter, Olivia

*Dad,
It is hard for me to say goodbye,
I will miss that twinkle in your eyes.
I was always proud to call you Dad,
The best friend a son could have.
With a breaking heart I held you,
And I saw you Slip Away.
Although I loved you dearly, Dad,
I could not make you stay.
An empty heart, an empty chair
My father's Love no longer there.
Golden heart stopped beating now
You're loving Soul's at rest.
God broke my heart to prove to me
He only takes the best.
The times we laughed and the times we cried
Memories now inside my mind
And though letting go is so very sad,
I never will forget you, Dad.*

Your Son, Aaron
