

MY GIFT OF UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

God gave you to me, from heaven above
My first miracle baby, to nurture and to love.
He whispered to me, and asked, "can I trust you to,
Love and protect him, the same way I love and protect you".

You were created just for me; fashioned with eyes
just like mine.

And your smile lit up my world and made my whole life shine.

I fell in love at first sight, and I held you close to me.

I loved you unconditionally, with love as pure as He.

Again, God whispered to me and said, "my daughter this will be the hardest thing to do.

But its all apart of love my dear I had to do the same thing too

I must come and take him now, back home to heaven with me

I know you may not understand now, but this is where I need him to be"

This precious son that God gave me, this earth was not his place.

I unconditionally loved him and protected him, and taught him about God's love, mercy and His grace

I'll only have memories and pictures now, some frozen pieces of time

To remind me of how my life use to be, when you were here and mine

I know I'll weep and grieve for you, but I will always hold you close to me
My love for you is eternal, my son; It's unconditional, forever and undying.

Dedicated to my son – James B Daniels II, My Angel

Celebration of Life

James Bernard Daniels II was born September 24, 1988, in Twentynine Palms, California to Pamela Fennell-Barnes and James Bernard Daniels. James went home to be with the Lord on July 19, 2022.

James was affectionately known by “Jay” to all that knew and loved him.

Jay obtained his GED at Central Crossing in Columbus, Ohio and went on to further his education to become a Medical Xray Technician at Ohio Heritage College in Columbus, Ohio. He enjoyed fishing with his father and brothers, spending time with his children, his family and fiancée, and tinkering around with computers and electronics. At a young age he just had to know how everything worked and was very mechanically inclined, so he taught himself how to fix computers by taking them completely apart and putting it back together in working condition. He was also musically talented and loved creating music and making up a variation of beats.

Since Jay was in elementary school, he was found to be gifted and talented in specific academic math. His mother could take him to the grocery store, and he would add up the groceries in his head and the total would be exactly correct. He was blessed with so many other gifts and talents including making everyone laugh with his silly humorous ways and that infectious laugh he had.

At an early age, Jay accepted Christ as his personal savior and was baptized at Apostolic Faith Temple, Inc.

Jay was preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandfathers, Gerald Anthony Fennell and Charles (Butch) Alston; his grandparents Joyce and Tom Noel and his cousin/brother Gerald Stephen Anthony Fennell.

Jay leaves to cherish his memory his beautiful children, Arianna Daniels, Alaynah Daniels, and James Daniels, III; mother, Pamela (Carl) Barnes; father, James (Traci) Daniels; siblings, Raeshawn Cason, Jordan Daniels and Easley Daniels, Amber Hill, Carl M. Barnes and Cory Barnes; grandmothers, Charlotte Nowell and Darlene Alston; great-grandmother, Mary Lyons; aunts, Victoria Fennell, Charlene Alston and Leslie (Melvin) Traylor; uncles, Charles Chauncy (Shawne) Alston, Fletcher McDaniel and Shawn Fennell. Special friend and fiancée, Sierra Scott. A host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Prayer of Comfort

Jay's favorite scripture: (Psalm 8:1-6) O Lord, our Lord, How excellent is Your name in all the earth, Who have set Your glory above the heavens! ² Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have ordained strength, Because of Your enemies, That You may silence the enemy and the avenger. ³ When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, The moon and the stars, which You have ordained, ⁴ What is man that You are mindful of him, And the son of man that You visit him? ⁵ For You have made him a little lower than the angels, And You have crowned him with glory and honor. ⁶ You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet,
