Life Reflections

A TIME TO BE BORN

To everything there is a season, a time to be born and a time to die. Akeem Anthony Jones, also known as “Spooky Dee,” or to some as “Freak,” was born to Yukia Mccullough and the late Ernest Quinn on April 23, 1994, in Miami, Florida.

A TIME TO LIVE

During Akeem’s adolescent years, he played at various youth football organizations: Miami Gardens Chargers, Scott Lake Vikings, and Bunche Parke Cowboys, where he acquired the name “Freak” because Akeem was bigger than everyone else his age. Akeem attended Miami Carol City Senior High School. While attending high school, Akeem became a dual athlete. He ran track and played football, being labeled as a dual threat. As a Quarterback, Akeem loved showing off his throwing ability and fast feet. He was known as the best to ever do it and lived up to that title with every victory.

After spending his early years playing sports, God took Akeem on a new path of becoming an entrepreneur and a recording artist, where he could provide for his family. Providing for his family was his greatest commitment, biggest accomplishment, and how he could show his loving heart. Akeem was a great father and a wonderful big brother. He owned several businesses, including clothing lines named “Figure It Out” and “Bandemic.” Akeem was also an entertainer, who the world knew as “Spooky Dee.” Akeem valued building relationships with different artists, especially local artists. He was known for his philanthropy, amazing smile, humble spirit, and friendly demeanor. We will surely miss the things that he has done, the trips, the fake phone calls/pranks, and all the jokes. The way he could make others smile and how he lit up every room he walked into...

A TIME TO TRANSCEND

On December 27, 2021, God decided to pluck Akeem, a flower from this earth, to plant in his heavenly garden. He leaves to cherish his memory: two sons, Deonta Lawson and Akeem Jones, Jr.; his mother, Yukia Mccullough; his father, the Late Ernest Quinn, preceded him in death; godfather, Martin Maultsby (Sandra); grandfathers, Joseph Mccullough (Arthia) and Craig Earle, Sr. (Tiffany); grandmothers, Beverly Earle, Loraine Earle, and Emma Jones; siblings, Shukia Jones, Randle Jones, Jr., Arvin Mccullough, Jywone Mccullough, Ronnie Mccullough, Ladedric Castellanos, Thomas Castellanos III, Arviniece McDonald, Kynia Wilkinson, Makia Harris, Lavarick Rogers, and Ernisha Quinn; aunts, Merchell Mitchell (Bennie), Estonija Taylor (Jimmy), Frankieta Conley, and Creagan Earle; uncles, Craig Earle, Jr., and Creed Earle; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and very close friends.

To My Son Fly Away

When the time has come, you didn't know death was right there.
Trying to figure out which way you would disappear.

Days and nights you had so much fear.
Thinking you let your mother down, not knowing the adjustments was already there.
But God had everything figured out.

I cried so many tears hoping you hear my pain,
come back and be here, but God said rest my child you have no more to fear.

I love you, son!

Your Mom,
Yukia Mccullough

To Our Brother

You left without warning. Gone so fast.
Now all we have are memories of our past.

You are loved by so many. You might not Have known,
But in our hearts is where you have grown.

The memories we have throughout the years will last forever with laughter and tears.

We will miss you oh so much.
So will all the lives that you have touched.

We can't say goodbye. We can't accept your death.
You will live in our hearts forever
until our last breath.

We Love You Forever,
Your Sisters and Brothers
