Acknowledgements

We would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to all who have shown comforting expressions of love, sympathy and prayers during the passing of our loved one, Joe Edward Waymyers.

May God bless each and every one of you.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, from pain I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned around and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way I found the peace on a sunny day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A family shared, a laugh, a kiss oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I've savored much, good family, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seem all too brief don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now; He set me free.

The Obituary

Mr. Joe Edward Waymyers was born on August 11, 1958 in Orangeburg, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Mr. James Waymyers and the late Mrs. Sarah C. Shaw. After a long term illness he earned his wings on October 23, 2019 at Providence Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina.

Joe Edward Waymyers enjoyed traveling from place to place, making money and always handling some type of business. He was educated at Dreher High School in Columbia, South Carolina. At an early age he was known as the number one mechanic. When there was a need he was always the one to call on.

Joe Edward Waymyers was preceded in death by his brother Joseph (Slick) Waymyers; Uncle, James (Sonny) Clemons; a loving mother in law, Nellie Faye Jackson and his aunt, Rosa L. Clemons.

Joe leaves to cherish his loving memories, a truly, devoted and dedicated companion, Mildred (Ben) Jones; four daughters, Cherylrall (Gary) Faust, Naomi Jones, Demetrius Brown, and Tuiguanea Javon Waymyers all of Denmark, South Carolina; five sons, Dezmon (Moranda) Jones of Denmark, South Carolina, Tyarell (Shanequa) Clemons, Dyarell (Quaneisha) Clemons both of Norway, South Carolina, Brandon (Lashawn) Waymyers and Joenathan Waymyers both of Kingstree, South Carolina; two sisters, Shirley (Charles) Robinson, and Sarah Ann Waymyers both of Norway, South Carolina; four brothers, Daniel Shaw of Norway, South Carolina, Alexander Waymyers of Denmark, South Carolina, Dervin Moten of Columbia, South Carolina and Benjamin (Edith) Shaw of North, South Carolina; three aunts, Rosa Lee Yon and of Mary Ann Isaac both of Columbia, South Carolina, and Ann Jamison of Buffalo, New York; fifteen grandchildren; one great grandchild, and one great-great grandchildren; two very special step kids, Ron and Dolly of Kingstree, South Carolina; a special person of many years, Mrs. Terri Tisdale; God-Sister, Mrs. Sandy Anderson-Atterberry and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends all whom will miss him dearly.
