Gone Fishing

If someone should ask for me, tell 'em heaven is where I'll be.
I've finished all my life's chores and now I fish on Heaven's shores.

The view is grand and the fishing is great.
But I yearn for you as I wait. I'll save a spot on the rivers bend
For all those I call family and friends.

But for now head to the waters and make a cast in memory,
To all the good times that you had, With me your Father, your
Granddad, and your friend.

And if the fish no longer bite or seem worth the fight,
'Cause it's me that you are missin'
Don't worry-be happy-I've gone fishing.
