The Family Tributes

I'm truly blessed and grateful to have had a sister like you. We shared so many memories and inside jokes in our childhood and adult years. It's hard for me to accept that you're gone and I'm going to miss you dearly. I will carry you in my heart and spirit forever. I love you my sister. Trice

AUNTIE

To some, I lost an aunt, to me I lost a second Mother. From your soft morning kisses, to bittersweet moments. Memories of our heart, and heart to heart talks and the old school sing alongs. Thoughts of the last words you said to me, along with mixed emotions overtaking me. Stuck between my worst nightmare and reality. Wishing I could see you or hug you for one last time. But then I realized the sadness would still live within my silent cries. My heart will forever be place where your love lies. I will love forever Auntie.... Love Cherish

I am lost for words. There's so much I can say about you baby sis, but there's not enough paper or ink to tell it all. We've been through everything together-and I wouldn't trade any of it- no matter what! I love you and I will miss you until we meet again! Sofia "Nicky"

My Dearly Beloved Sister,

I am still waiting for you to say, April Fool's! I guess I am the fool since it's January! A wound like this may never heal, but the memories we shared makes it all worth the hurt! In my heart we will forever be those little girls playing "Barbie Dolls" or two broken hearted women singing along to Maxwell's "Pretty Wings" all loud and wrong! I know things weren't always perfect, but we still had each other-it's bittersweet like this farewell because I know you're at peace, but I am going to miss you so much Pinky! Always and forever I will carry you in my heart! Sleep in peace baby girl..... Sleep in peace! Tanisha "Brain"

Expressions of Gratitude

There are really no words to express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and support you have extended toward our family during our time of loss. May God richly bless each of you. The family of Melodisha Jacobs

As We Remember Our Mommy

As we walk through the journey of life, we will always remember you Mommy, and how you have helped us to grow with love, truth and honesty. We will remember that you instilled values, morals and self worth.

We will especially remember how you loved and cherished us unconditionally, and the sacrifices you made for us. As we remember, our prayer will always be to make you proud while we continue to shape into strong adults, full of hopes and dreams. We love you very much Mommy, and we know that God will take special care of you! Rest in paradise Mommy!

The Legacy

Melodisha Levy Jacobs was born in Brooklyn, New York on May 13, 1988. She was reared by the late Georgia A. Jacobs and Wendy (Willie) Davis.

Melodisha became a resident of Denmark, South Carolina in 1997. She then attended Denmark-Olar public schools. After graduating from Denmark Technical College, she pursued a promising career in the medical field. Her loving personality and warm heart landed her a job as a caregiver for caring partners. She was devoted to her clients for five years and they grew to adore her.

Later she started a family and became a member of Faith Ministry Church. She went back to school and received a pharmaceutical certificate and worked in the pharmacy of Walmart in Orangeburg, South Carolina until her untimely death.

Sadly, on Tuesday morning, January 26, 2021, Melodisha was called to eternal rest. She was preceded in death by her parents, her son, Zy'marrian Bryant and her grandmother, Georgia A. Jacobs.

Melodisha is survived by her four beautiful children, Ed'Dajah, Marvin, Jr., Deontray and Janora Bryant; her mother, Wendy (Willie) Davis; eleven siblings, three sisters and eight brothers, Tanisha Jacobs of Denmark, South Carolina, Sofia (Dijon) Hill of Cordova, South Carolina, Dashawna (Kevin) Wright of Hardeeville, South Carolina, Jamel (Chereka) Levy of New York, Kwan Levy of New Jersey, Eddie Levy of Long Island, New York, Curtis (Keilah) Levy of Long Island, New York, Deshawn Levy of Virginia, Willie (Ginger) Levi of New York, Kareem Levy of North Carolina, and Courtney (D'aja) Jacobs of Gastonia, North Carolina; a dear aunt, Dewanda (Cat) Jacobs; two best friends, Jessica Johnson and XiaXiana Sherman; and a host of nieces, nephews, God-children, relatives and friends.

Melodisha will be sorely missed along with her beautiful, bright smile and extraordinary personality. Her family and friends will forever cherish her life, the memories and her legacy.
