

Life Reflections

William Charles Judd, known to most as “Boy Judd” or “Chucky,” was born April 04, 1961. He passed away on the evening of May 30, 2022.

William was preceded in death by his mother, Gracie Cross (Coy), his father, William Junior (Coffee) Judd, his grandparents, Colon Judd Jr. and Jessie Ruth Judd; his aunts, Ruth Frederick, Mary McDougald, and Dorothy Judd; his uncles, Hubert and Henry Lee Judd.

William attended schools in the Chatham County School System. Over the years, he had many jobs, but he was most known for his job as a painter with his long-time friend Chris Harris. He loved to fish when he got the chance. One of his favorite things to do was watching college basketball and having a cold King Cobra or “snakies,” as he called it. His favorite team was the Duke Blue Devils, and he had no problem defending them to any Tar Heel fan.

William was a jokester for sure and was known for doing a good two-step on the dance floor (that’s all he knew). Although this was sudden, may we all find solace in knowing that he is now resting peacefully.

William leaves behind three children, Brandon Blue of Sanford, NC, LaSonya Judd (Brittney) of Cameron, NC, and Taneesha Judd of New Hill NC; two brothers, John Judd (Tylesia) of Durham, NC, and James Judd of Siler City, NC; grandchildren, Ethan Blue, Jay’Ce Blue; an aunt, Lady Janie Pearson (Bishop James); one uncle, Leon Judd (Sonya) and numerous cousins, family, and friends.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway,
and memories a lane.
I would walk right up to Heaven
and bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say “Goodbye”.
You were gone before I knew it,
and only God knows why.

My heart still aches with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you –
No one can ever know.

But now I know you want me
to mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times
life still has much in store.

Since you’ll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today
A hollowed place within my heart is where you’ll always stay.

Love Lives On
 You went away so suddenly. We did not say goodbye.
 But brothers can never be parted
 Precious memories never die.
