Obituary

On June 16, 1948, the Lord blessed us with the birth of our gift from God, Dorothy Louise Douglas Jackson. She was the beloved daughter of the late Henry Junior and Mildred Mason Douglas. God graced her with a sweet, gentle spirit displayed through her smile. Her easy demeanor and a bright smile lit up any room she was in. Dorothy was a graduate of West Southern Pines High School.

Dorothy met and married her knight and shining armor, the late Artis Jackson. They remained married until God called him home. Being one of the first supervisors at Manor Care Rehabilitation Center, she worked diligently for thirty-five years or more. Dorothy was recognized for her excellent service and was awarded “Employee of the Year.” She treated everyone with compassion and great care.

She loved her church family and served in many capacities at Trinity AME Zion Church, including treasurer of the Gospel Choir and choir member. She loved to bake, bowl, shop, and spend time with her blessed family.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Mildred Douglas, her husband, Artis Jackson, and her brother-in-law, Saleh Saylon.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her memories two brothers, Henry Douglas (Gwen) and James Douglas; three sisters, Carolyn Saylon, Toni Baskerville (Anthony), and Gloria McNeill; special daughter, Jasmine Douglas Booker; goddaughter, Tamekia Douglas; stepson Rodney Quick; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“Others”

By Charles D. Meigs

Lord help me live from day to day

In such a self-forgetful way;

That even when I kneel to pray

My prayers shall be for – Others.

Help me in all the work I do

To ever be sincere and true.

And know that all I do for you

Must needs be done for – Others.

Let “Self” be crucified and slain,

And buried deep; and all in vain.

May efforts be to rise again

Unless to live for – Others.

And when my work on earth is done,

And my new work in Heaven’s begun.

May I forget the crown I’ve won

While thinking still of – Others.

Others, Lord, yes Others,

Let this my motto be.

Help me to live for Others

That I may live like Thee.
