ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

OBITUARY

Mr. Fred Eugene McAllister Sr. entered eternal rest on May 15, 2023, at FirstHealth Moore Regional Hospital in Pinehurst, North Carolina. Fred Eugene McAllister was born on May 22, 1937, to John Henry and Rozina McAllister in Moore County, North Carolina.

Fred was preceded in death by his wife, Mamie McAllister, his parents, John Henry and Rozina McAllister, his six siblings, Montez McAllister (sister), Rozina Hill (sister), Mary Ray (sister), John Henry McAllister (brother), Alex McAllister (brother), Johnny McAllister (brother), and his children, Freida A. Williams (daughter), Felicia D. McIntyre (daughter), Fred E. McAllister Jr. (son), and Theodore W. Williams (grandson).

Fred was educated in the Moore County school system. Fred worked at Proctor Silex Company for many years until he retired. Fred labored faithfully with his hands. Fred loved the sport of golf and was good at it. Fred learned the game of golf by being a caddy for many years. Fred also loved riding his motorcycle; he was good at long and short distances.

Fred was a kind and generous man that loved helping when he could. Fred was funny and had a great sense of humor; people liked to be around Fred. Even when he could no longer play golf or ride the motorcycle, he would always keep up with the latest about the sports he loved. Because of his health decline, he faithfully watched it on television.

Fred leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Foradia McIntyre; his daughter-in-law, Jane McAllister; his sister-in-law, Diane McAllister; his grandchildren, Shillina Williams, Theeyoei McIntyre, Dennis J. McIntyre, Nia McIntyre, Clifton McIntyre Jr., Fred E McAllister III, Sabrina McAllister; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins; and other relatives and friends.
