She diligently attended Green Grove A.M.E Zion church every week. She loved praising the Lord and would get her praise on just about every Sunday. She was a devoted mother. She took good care of her daughter.

Tamiker leave to cherish her memories: her daughter, Miracle Deanna Jackson whom she loved dearly, of the home; her Aunt and overseer Peggy Jackson Cotten (John) of Cameron, NC, Her father, Michael Anthony Upchurch, of Lemon Springs, NC; three Aunts: Judy McKeithan of Sanford, and Bobbi McNeil of Cameron and Linda Upchurch of NY; four uncles; Charles Cameron and Jimmy Jackson (Roberta) of Cameron, NC and Melvin Jackson (Valencia) of Sanford, NC and James (Bo-Pete) Upchurch of NY; and a host of cousins and friends.

Poem

Heaven, Heaven is my home
I am no longer suffering with pain in my bones.

I am gone to a better home where
I can walk the streets that are paved with gold
I know I will be missed but God saw me getting tired

He whispered in my ear and said,
"I'll take you home,"
It's ok.

Smile, there will be a brighter day.
No more crying, no more dying
We shall all met again one day, it's ok.

I'm looking down on my child
I'm in heaven rejoicing with Jesus
And the rest of my family in heaven,
Rejoice I will miss you all too.
