OBITUARY

"I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." 2 Timothy 4:1

Curtis Hart made his natural transition on Tuesday, January 7, 2020, at FirstHealth Hospice and Palliative Care in Pinehurst, North Carolina. Curtis was born to the late Mary Lee Brown and John Mickens on August 12, 1955.

Brother Curtis Hart grew up in South Carolina. He decided to take wings and join the United States Army (1973-1975). After leaving the military, he found that he enjoyed working on HVAC systems. Curtis received his Associate Degree from Midland Tech, becoming certified to work on HVAC systems. He continued to do so until his health failed.

"Listen, I tell you a mystery; We will not sleep, but we will be changed in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. 1 Corinthians 15:51-52."

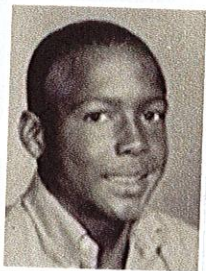

Brother Hart is survived by, his loving and devoted wife, Priscilla Hart of the home; one daughter, Katrice Heard of Southern Pines, North Carolina; one son, Andre McLeod of Vass, North Carolina; two brothers, Terry Mickens (Denise) and Kelton Washington (Cornella); two sisters, Rozalyn Renee Lucas and Coretta Washington; seven aunts, Elsie Sumpter, Charlotte Ducan, Dorothy Hart, Susie Hickman, Mary Ivory (Bobby), Annie Mae and Ella Mae Carter; two uncles, Wardell Mickens (Janie Mae) and Robert Mickens; grandchildren, Nicole, Curtis, Jai' Sean, Andrea, Andre and Adriana (Boo Boo); a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other loving relatives; and special recognition cousins, Ann Minor, Wendell Walker, and Paul Minor.

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

I have come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little – but not for long.
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we must all take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Thank you for your prayers and support during our time of sickness and loss of our loved one.
It has meant so much to our family.
