Sanford, North Carolina 27332

REMEMBERING

MR. HOSEA GRIFFIN, JR.

Hosea was born on March 4, 1954, in Sanford, North Carolina, to the late Hosea “Buddy” Griffin Sr., and Ruth Mae Martin-Griffin, both of Sanford, North Carolina.

Hosea attended school in Sanford, North Carolina. After school, he joined the United States Army. At a young age, he became a Brick Mason, working between Lee Brick of Sanford North Carolina and Cherokee Brick of Moncure, North Carolina.

Hosea was an ol’ country boy. He enjoyed fishing and repairing lawn tractors until his health started to fail in July, 2015. Hosea loved his John Deere along with anything that required him to go outside; this was right up his alley. Hosea was the type of person who would give you the shirt off his back when someone needed it.

Hosea was proceeded in death by his parents and a daughter, Amanda White.

Hosea leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, whom he loved very much, Ellen “Sue” Griffin of the Home in Carthage, North Carolina; his baby girl, Courtney Frye (Jermaine) of the home, Hosea Snipes (ReeRee) of Sanford, North Carolina, Miranda Griffin of West End, North Carolina, Melinda Berryman of Vass, North Carolina, Carrie Trussell of Sanford, North Carolina and Atita Trussell of Sanford, North Carolina; a brother, Eddie Griffin Sr., of Cameron, North Carolina; a sister, Cynthia Cockman (Willie) of Sanford, North Carolina; eighteen grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; a very special person, Amanda Hooker; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins other relatives and friends.

My Love,

When we met, I was a mess. Not trusting people, men in particular, getting to know you I have found trust and comfort in your hand: I have found happiness and Joy in your arms: I have found a love that will last forever in your heart. Just know I have the same love for you.

Sugg

Dear Daddy,
I love you with all my heart. Fly high my love and I'll see you soon one day!
Love Always, Your Baby Girl, Newt
