The Legacy I Left

A Daughter, Sister and Mother This Is the Legacy We Have from You! You taught us Love and how to fight. You gave us strength; you gave us might. A stronger person would be impossible to find. Because you are one of a kind. You fought for us all in one way or another, Not just as a Daughter, and not just as a Mother. For all of us you gave your best. Now the time has come for you to rest. So, go in peace, you've earned your sleep. Your love is in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

Love Brian and Shauniko

Rhonda's Life

At the age of fifty-nine, Rhonda departed her life peacefully at home in Olivia, North Carolina, surrounded by her mother and daughter. Rhonda battled sickness for a few years. During this time, she was saved and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Saviour.

Rhonda was born December 24, 1960, to Doris Buie Sellers and the late James (Boot) Sellers in Sanford, North Carolina.

Rhonda graduated from Western Harnett High School in 1978. She later went on to work at Twin City Cleaners, Eagle Electric, and Coty. Rhonda met and married Lawrence Smith (1979-1992). To this union, three children were born.

Rhonda enjoyed many activities, which included reading, crossword puzzles, cooking, being around her family and taking care of her grandchildren.

Rhonda was preceded in death by her father, James (Boot) Sellers.

Rhonda leaves to cherish her memories, her mother, Doris Buie Sellers; a brother, Steve Sellers; a sister, Kimetha Sellers; two sons, Brian (Shauniko) Smith and Kareem Smith; a daughter, Latoya Smith; fourteen grandchildren, Mikal, Shaniya, Jovon, Kareena, Shakira, Shayera, Isaiah, Isreal, Lyric, Malaki, Kareem, Future, Jazzmiah and Kamiah; four aunts, Rachel Sellers, Margaret Buie, Delores McLaughlin, and Marzell Murchinson; one uncle, Johnny Sellers; and a host of other family members and friends.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Love Stevie & Kimetha
