OBITUARY

Kenneth Jermaine Tabon was born at UNC Hospital to Kenneth Ray Tabon and Janie Anita Mitchell Tabon on March 21, 1986. On Sunday, November 15, 2020, he was called home to rest.

Jermaine graduated from Lee County Senior High School in Sanford, North Carolina, in 2004. He loved getting and doing tattoos. Jermaine loved beach getaways and fishing, but music was his real passion. He fought a good fight through all his sickness; he was tired.

Jermaine is preceded in death by his grandparents, Curtis and Barbara Bridges, and three uncles, Kenneth Mitchell, Curtis Tyrell Bridges, and Willie Jr. Tabon.

He leaves to cherish his memories, one son, Nasir Nashon Tabon; a nephew, Zaevein "Nugg" Times, who was like a son; two sisters, Kendra Tabon and Deovion Bridges; five brothers, D'Erick Bridges (Shervell), D'Kerrius Bridges, Jonathan "Wu" Bridges, Quinterious Ragland and Ronald Suarez; three nephews, Jamah Bridges, Cordarius Goldston, and Noah Mangum; two nieces, Nadia Mangum and Sha'Kira Quick; one grandmother, Ester Headen; his aunts, Brenda Lemon, Shaunda Fox, Tamika Bridges, Terry Cameron, Jean Matthews, Jackie West, Venus Allen, Shirley Mitchell, and Pamela Staton; his uncles, Rickie Tabon, Gregory Staton, Timothy Staton, and Sterling Staton; three special cousins, Ayden Bridges, Keyanna Tabon, and Zonoah Lawrence; four special friends, Natasha Williams, Sabrina Alston, Tommy Williams, and David Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends.

MY JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

*My Journey's Just Begun
Don't think of me as gone away
My journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is but one
Just think of me as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think of how I must be wishing
That you could know today
How nothing but your sadness
Can really go away
And think of me as living
In the hearts of those I touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And I know I was loved so much*

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Mr. Kenneth Jermaine Tabon wishes to express with deepest gratitude and sincere appreciation for all acts of kindness shown during the loss of their loved one. May God bless you.
