The Way to Heaven

Believe that God raised Jesus from the dead. Repent and be sorrowful for your sins, and ask Jesus to come into your heart to wash and cleanse you from all sins. And forgive all people before God in prayer.

Romans 10:9-10

Obituary

Mother Mary Lillie Farrar Jones quietly transitioned to her new heavenly home on December 18, 2020, at her daughter's home.

Mother Jones was born on April 25, 1928, to the late Booker T. and Connie Mae Phillips Farrar of Pittsboro, North Carolina. She was the second oldest of ten children.

Mother Jones attended school in the Chatham County School System. In her early years of life, she attended Mitchell's Chapel Church. She met and married the love of her life, the late Frank Jones, Sr. She then moved her membership to Taylor's Chapel Missionary Baptist Church.

Brother Frank and Mother Mary's family would soon begin to grow over the next decade. To their union, they had five children, Frank Edward, James Ray, Mary Jane, Delores Ann, and Billy Wayne.

Mother Mary was employed at Sunshine Garden during the late 1960s. After her employment ended at Sunshine Garden, she then became a caregiver throughout the community.

Mother Jones loved to fish, work in the garden, hunt wildlife, sew, and most of all, serve the Lord.

She is survived by her daughter, Mary Taylor; son, Billie Wayne (Frances) Jones; brothers, Jimmy (Euphalia) Farrar, Charlie (Lillie Mae) Farrar, Julius Farrar, Frank Farrar; Minister Linda Leach; fourteen grandchildren; twenty-three great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family.

Mother Jones was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Sr., sons, James Ray and Frank Edward, a daughter, Delores Ann, her parents, Booker T. and Connie Phillips Farrar and brothers, Bennie, Johnnie, Walter, and London Farrar.

Psalms 91:1-4

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my Refuge and my Fortress; My God in Him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with His feathers; and under His wings shalt thou trust.

Acknowledgments

At this most difficult time, we the family of Mother Mary Lillie Farrar Jones, are most thankful to the Lord for our family and friends. Many kinds words have been spoken, acts of love have been shared, and prayers have been offered to and for our family. May God richly bless and keep each of you.

Thank you ever so much.
