“PEOPLE WILL

WHAT YOU SAID, PEOPLE WILL FORGET
WHAT YOU DID,
BUT PEOPLE WILL NEVER

HOW YOU MADE THEM FEEL.”

Rod was a vibrant soul who loved fiercely! He enjoyed many things, but especially fashion – he could light up a room with his presence.

Rod was born to Lela Christian and Willie Frederick. His purpose in life was to support his family and make sure they were “good.” He was the kind of person who would go hard for his family, especially his mom. All he wanted was the best for everyone in his life and that all would live up to their higher self. He was deeply touched by the powerful love he felt for his family and friends. He wanted nothing more than to “have everyone’s back.”

Rod was an explorer on the spiritual path and was especially drawn to and influenced by the Moorish beliefs.

He leaves behind a daughter whom he loved with all his being. He tried his best to provide the fatherly wisdom that she needed to become the young lady she is today.

He is also survived by a loving mother, father, stepfather, sisters, brothers, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, and many, many friends.

Here is a quote that sums up Rod’s
Philosophy of life:

“...We all we got. I value what’s important in life...God and my parents and my siblings!”

-Rod, March 2021

“I do my thing and
you do your thing. I am not in this world to live up to your expectations And you are not in this world to live up to mine. You are you
and I am I, And if by chance we find each
other, its beautiful;
If not, it can’t be helped.”

Fritz Perls

Nothing can dim the light
that shines
from within.
