Obituary

Phillip Lee Snipes was the fifth child of seven children born of the late Glen Snipes and Doris Snipes on May 24, 1954.

Everyone who knew Phillip called him Phil-Lee. He loved working on cars, being outside, fishing, and sitting around watching western movies. He loved everybody, including his family. Phillip went to W. B. Wicker School. He worked at National Hand Tools and Hallman Foundry for many years.

Phillip has always been known to be small, however his heart was enormous. He was a friend to many, and showed up whenever needed. He knew the Bible, and he loved to talk and tell people about the Word of God.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his son Damon Snipes (Anita); daughters Ukina Blue and Cynthia Dowdy (James); twelve grandchildren, Dante Snipes, Devonte Snipes, Naquasia Blue, Jarriet Durham, Torrior Blue, Jamya Dowdy, Essence Dunston, Jayla Dowdy, Ethan Brewster, Elijah Brewster, Eva Brewster, and Kiyann Dowdy; a great-grandchild, Kaiser Blue; sisters, Joyce Snipes, Veta Smith (Johnny), Cynthia Smith (George), and Jannie Allen; brothers, William Snipes and Clyde Snipes; an uncle, Haywood Snipes (Barbara); two aunts, Sarah Chesney (Albert) and Ruby Battle (Howard); ten nephews; six nieces; a good friend, Kenny Baker; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

If Roses Grow In Heaven

If roses grown in Heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my father's arms
And tell him they're from me.
Tell him I love him and miss him,
And when he turns to smile,
Place a kiss up on his cheek
And hold him for a while.
Because remembering him is easy,
I do it every day
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden and saw an empty place
He then looked down upon the Earth
And saw your tired face
He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest
With the help of His angels they flew you to your Heavenly place
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best
He knew you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never get well on Earth again
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb
He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be Thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Your Siblings
