

Memorial Reflections

Tanoa V. Hooker Martinez, affectionately known as “Tweeny” to her family and friends, was born on September 17, 1965, in Sanford, North Carolina, to Betty Hooker and Alford L. White I.

Tanoa was raised and lived in Sanford, North Carolina, all of her life. She graduated from Lee County Senior High School and, after graduation, attended Computer Training School in Washington, D.C.

Family and friends were important to her. She was a devoted care provider for her mother during her time of need. In addition, she would help out other relatives and friends when she could. Tanoa never had any children of her own but watched plenty of children for her relatives and friends in her community.

Tanoa enjoyed reading and astronomy, which would explain her love for science fiction movies. But, no matter what was going on with her, she had a smile on her face and kept you laughing. She also loved her cats and could not say no to any strays.

Tanoa was preceded in death by her mother, Betty Hooker, a cousin, Anthony Hooker, and siblings Alford L White II and LaTouya A. White Tanoa is survived by her father, Alford L. White I; her loving companion, Angel of twenty-two years; a sister, Edythe N. White; her nephews, Alford L. White III and Jordan D. Cole; her cousins, Van Michael Watson, Stephanie Hooker, Tjuana Hooker, Clintrell Watson, and Cleahonia Watson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change.

The courage to change the things I can,
and the wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardships as a pathway to peace; taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is; not as I would have it;
Trusting that You will make all things right if I surrender to Your will; So that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with You forever in the next.

Acknowledgments

The family of the late Tanoa Martinez, wishes to express our appreciation for the many prayers, kind words of sympathy and acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement.

This was a difficult time, but all of your love and support was a huge comfort to us.

*Love, Peace and Blessings,
