

OBITUARY

Ray Anthony Monroe, 32, of Fayetteville, North Carolina, gained his angel wings, November 24, 2021, at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center.

On April 27, 1989, Ray was born in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, to Annette Marie Monroe.

Ray attended Southern Lee High School in Sanford, North Carolina, obtaining his high school diploma. In addition, he attended Mt. Nebo Freewill Baptist Church in his younger years, where he honed his drum playing abilities.

Ray was such a sweet soul and had the natural gift of conversing with people & making them feel at home. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. He loved dancing, music, washing cars, playing drums & many other things.

Ray is survived by his mother, Annette Monroe of Sanford, North Carolina; brothers, Brandon Monroe of Sanford, North Carolina, and Kelvin Monroe (Samantha) of Charlotte, North Carolina; sisters, Shaunteria Monroe of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Dinequa Monroe of Springlake, North Carolina, and a special sister, Shaniqua Smith (Dean) of Sanford, North Carolina; several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles & friends; two special friends he cherished; his mentor, Reverend Gerome Williams (Cynthia) of Sanford, North Carolina and Alex Williams of Sanford, North Carolina.
