

Obituary

Phoebe Katherine Walker-Richardson, daughter of the late Walter Walker and Mary L. Walker, was born on January 9, 1937, in Harnett County, North Carolina.

Phoebe Katherine was a graduate of Johnsonville High School. Katherine worked many years as a seamstress and a domestic service worker for many in her community.

Katherine was loved by everyone that encountered her. She was bubbly with a great personality. She loved Jesus, her family, joking around, dancing, singing, and children.

In Katherine's spare time, she enjoyed doing cross-word puzzles, watching gospel programs on television, and sewing.

Phoebe Katherine was preceded in death by her daughters, Alberta Richardson, and Gail Walker, son, Charles Richardson, sisters, Mary Verlene Bethea, and Willie Beatrice Woodson, a very special grandson, Travis Richardson, and a brother, Lewis Walker.

Katherine is survived by one brother, Neil Walker (Ula), of Virginia Beach, Virginia; three daughters, Jackie Goins (Larry) of Sanford, North Carolina, Felicia Cameron (Kent) of Lillington, North Carolina, and Agnes Richardson of Cameron, North Carolina; a stepson, Michael Richardson of Cameron, North Carolina; and a host of grandchildren, great- grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

A mother, a grandmother among many other things. You've taught us love and how to fight. You've shown us what a family is, unlike many others that have tried. For all of us your best was given, now it's time that you take your rest. We love you grandma and your love will eternally be in our hearts.

A wonderful mother,
A wonderful sister,

A wonderful grandma,
a wonderful person,

Just one more time I wish I could hear your voice, we love you until the end of time watch over us forever Because we still need you, we miss you, our guardian angel the fight is over you are as fine as wine. Sleep in peace.
