Acknowledgments

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

Obituary

Dominique Denice McKeithan was born to Geneva McKeithan and Edward Davis on November 19, 2000. She transitioned from earth to glory on Sunday, April 10, 2022.

Dominique was a quiet person, but her personality spoke loudly. She was named by her aunt, who also gave her the nickname Woo.

Dominique had a heart of gold and a love for others.
However, her greatest joy was the love of children.

Dominique was a member of New Zion Baptist Church, where she accepted Christ in her life. In addition, Dominique served as a Praise Team, Youth Choir, and Usher Board member.

Dominique graduated from Lee Senior High School in 2019 and went on to further her education at North Carolina Central University in Durham, NC.

Dominique was a loving daughter, niece, cousin, and friend and will be greatly missed by anyone that knew her.

Dominique was preceded in death by her grandparents, Julia B. Atwater, Marshall McKeithan, Lorrena Davis, and her nanny, Betty Watson (George).

Dominique leaves to cherish her memories, her mother, Geneva McKeithan (Joe); her father, Edward Davis (Priscilla) of Sanford, NC; one brother, Maurice Davis; two sisters, Tomeka Goins and Tracy Tucker of Sanford, NC; one uncle Tim McKeithan (Jackie); two aunts, Michelle McKeithan (Anthony) of Sanford, NC, and Alia Moore (Chuck) of New Jersey; her granny, Geneva Headen; and a special great uncle, John Buie (Connie); and a host of cousins, good friends, and other relatives.

The Twilight Hours

It's 3 am and you're on my mind,
I just can't sleep tonight,
I try but toss and turn and cry,
It's not fair, or just or right!
I close my eyes whisper your name,
Into the dark still air,
My sweetest child my Angel,
This pain I cannot compare.
Missing you is such a huge part,
Of my life now of my day,
Every waking moment you're there,
On my mind now to stay.
When I sleep you're in my dreams,
Calling out so distant so small,
I feel you slipping away from me,
I just can't get to you at all.
Then I wake up bathed in terror,
It's like losing you all over again,
My heart racing the tears falling,
It hurts so very much then.
But sometimes when I dream of you,
I'm holding you in my embrace,
Breathing in every inch of you,
Gazing into your darling face.
This stays with me when I waken,
I carry it in my heart,
Watching you grow, seeing you change,
Even though we are apart.
Your name the trees whisper to me,
The wind it sings your tune,
I know you're there, you're with me,
As we gaze at the waning moon.
Hold my hand My Angel,
As we gaze into the nights wild,
These twilight hours are mine and yours,
My Angel, my darling my child.

Love Always, Mom
