

Adelaida Eva

Doyle

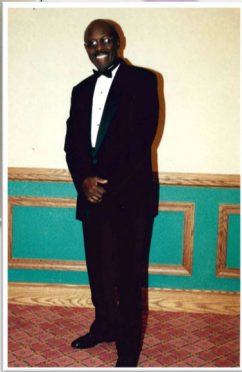

To the most sweetest elegant lady I have ever known, who just happened to be my dear mom. I will always cherish all the fine times, memories, wisdom and how much there was.

Ricardo Doyle

I loved and have cared for my mother for many years. She truly was an encouraging positive force in my life. She knew that she was transitioning home and bestowed upon me great wisdom and knowledge. I held her hand as she expressed to me how much she loved me and my siblings and her dear husband, Benjamin.

Cynthia Doyle

I loved my mother so very much and I know my mother loved me so very much. XOXO

Eva Farmer

Mommy you are like a beautiful bouquet of flowers arranged perfectly by God's design. You were the love of my life, my friend forever. I love you with all my heart.

Linda Jackson

Mommy I still see your face before me, your voice I long to hear. I miss and love you dearly and God knows I wish you were still here. Tears fall freely from my eyes, filled with grief. I love you mommy forever, your baby girl. You're the best mom anyone could ever have.

Celebration of Life

1922-2018

HER LORD SAID UNTO HER,
Well done thou good and faithful servant...

ADELAIDA (EVA) DANZIE DOYLE was born on October 7, 1922 in Havana, Cuba to the late Leonty Danzie and Maria Cooper Danzie. On Sunday, December 16, 2018, Eva Danzie Doyle transitioned from her earthly home to her heavenly home.

Adelaida (Eva) attended Merici Academy an all girls Catholic school in Havana and she attended Havana Music school for Classical piano, for a short period of time. She was fluent in Spanish, French and English. She loved to swim and often swam thru Havana's tunnels. To escape the revolution in Cuba, she came to the United States. She flew for the very first time from Havana to Miami, in which she resided for a short period of time. She then moved to New London, Connecticut, thereafter and worked as a Master Seamstress.

Mommy was raised catholic and then became a born again Christian in the early 1970's. She was Vice President of "Doyle Enterprises," the family's business. She was married for 63 years to the late Benjamin Doyle Sr, a Navy veteran. Together, they raised nine children in Benjamin's home town of Buffalo New York.

Eva leaves to cherish her memory eight loving children, Eva Farmer (Barry) Benjamin Doyle, Jr., Cynthia Doyle, Linda Jackson (Lee) Ricardo Doyle, Gay Doyle, Glenn Doyle, and Candy Doyle Troung-Lawson (Dinh); one brother, Antonio Danzie; 19 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, loving family from Cuba, St. Lucia to Norway and the United States.

Eva is preceded in death by her youngest son, Carlos Doyle, who transitioned home August 9, 2018; one sister, Santa Maria (Dolores) Danzie Watkins and two brothers, Nilo Danzie and Arsenio Danzie.
