REMEMBERING

JACOTTE

N. Maitland-Ebanks

Jacotte Maitland Ebanks was born on April 25th 1988 in Kingston Jamaica. Jacotte being the 1st born of her siblings, grew up in the island of St. Marteen. At the age of 8, Jacotte was able to speak French, Dutch and English. When Jacotte's family moved to America she was an All Star student; Soccer, track-and-field, academic decathlon, French club and student council were few of 10 school activities Jacotte was involved in as she attended Hackensack Middle and High School in Bergen County, New Jersey. Jacotte was always a bright an intelligent woman and was not afraid of change. She first studied fashion merchandising with a minor in English at Saint Peter's College in Union City, NJ but changed her direction once she was called by God to study Nursing at Bergen Community College in Paramus, NJ. During that time, Jacotte was lead to do overseas missionary work through teaching and dancing. Jacotte traveled to Mexico, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Korea, Canada and all over the U.S with the mission to spread of Joy, hope and the Forgiveness of sins through Jesus Christ. Regardless of money, time and even her health, Jacotte used all of used for youth for the Lord and led many people to seek a relationship with God. Even after being diagnosed with stage 4 cancer, she constantly went forward testifying the Joy of having cancer through the promise of God. Jacotte was a confidant to many people that wanted to hear the heart of God through the Word of God.

Jacotte was called to sweet rest in the arms of the Lord and leaves behind her mother Jannette Campbell, Her father George Reid, her biological father Nigel Maitland Ebanks and her dearest baby sister Georgina Reid. Jacotte also leaves her saved Goodnews Missions brothers and sisters, her students from all over the globe, her closest friends and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, siblings, grandparents and friends.
