

With You Always.

When life separates us
Know it is only my soul
Saying goodbye to my body

But my spirit will be with you always.

When you see a bird chirping on a nearby branch
You will know it is me singing to you.

When a butterfly brushes gently by me so care freely You will know it is me assuring you I am free from pain. When the gentle fragrance of a flower catches your attention you will know it is me reminding you To appreciate the simple things in life. When the sun shining through your window awakens you, it's the warmth of my love.

When you hear the rain pitter patter against my window sill you will hear my words of wisdom
And will remember what I taught you so well

That without rain trees cannot grow
Without rain flowers cannot bloom

Without life's challenges you cannot grow strong.
When you look out to the sea think of your endless love I have for you and our family.
No matter where you are, I'll be near Whispering, will always be with you.

To Asianna

Albria Wallace Crisp On the twenty-first day of June in the year of Nineteen Eighty One, in the city of Greenville, South Carolina, a blessing of their second born was bestowed upon Teresa (Downs) Crisp and Earnest Dennis and they named him Albria Wallace after his grandfather.

Albria was a brilliant mind in his grammar and high school years. He attended Carolina High Academy, and received his diploma in 2001. He was very intellectual and found solace in writing, drawing and creative arts. As he progressed into adulthood and then fatherhood, life would certainly prove itself challenging for Albria. But, with a praying mother, a loving daughter, and a supportive family, he knew he was loved and never alone.

Albria worked in food service, among other light industrial jobs. When he was not spending time with his family, he enjoyed playing basketball, working on lyrics with his cousins, playing the latest video games, or talking about the latest car that he was excited about.

God has seen fit to give him rest now and he departed this life on the day of October thirty-first, Twenty Twenty. He leaves a life of fond and cherished memories with his mother and father, Teresa and Willie Crisp, Earnest Dennis, (daughter) Asianna Crisp, (brother) Oran Crisp, (sister) Shacona Crisp and a bountiful family of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and life-long friends.

We are saddened by the loss of a loving son, father, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend but we delight in the hope that there is rest for his journey now and we ask that God's loving grace would envelop him and carry him home.
