Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awake in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

Acknowledgements

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel toward all of you who consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, love, presence and giving have sustained us. Your cards, telephone calls, visits, gifts of food, service and giving were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God's love expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you very much. Please keep us in your prayers.

I Forgot

I forgot to thank you for being there since the first day.
I forgot to thank you for showing and helping me find the way.
I forgot to thank you for giving me a shoulder to cry on.
I forgot to thank you for not just giving me a house, but a happy home.
You helped me become a man, taught me how to stay true.
Once again, I forgot to thank you.
I called a friend and explained the situation.
Now that she’s gone, what do I do?
The Lord said, “I got this one, I’ll thank her for you”.

Mama

You told me not to cry when you were gone.
Mama these tears I shed are in happiness in knowing you are finally home.
Your smile was your halo, your heart were your wings,
and in a short amount of time, you taught me so many things.
You said if I had a problem, no matter how big or small, to put them in the Lord’s hands and He will take care of them all.
You were there each and every day,
even when times were at their toughest you said, “Baby it’ll be okay”.
You were my friend, hero, and mother.
If I wished upon a million stars there could be no other.
For having you in my life, I can say, I have been truly blessed.
You have been rewarded with heaven, of course you deserve nothing less.
Although you are not here, you’ll never be gone.
You are forever in my heart,
please wait for me at those pearly gates at home.
