To my Superman...

Shay,

I love you so much. From the moment we met I noticed your kind spirit and that infectious smile that quickly won my heart. Over the years our love grew stronger and built our unbreakable bond. Thank you for being my hero all these years! Thank you for being my protector and always trying to never let me down. Thank you for allowing me to love you and showing me that true love does exist. Thank you for holding on to our love and being my best friend. I would not change one moment of our time together because every struggle that we faced made our love so much stronger. I am so glad that I was the one to share that unconditional love and bond with you. I will cherish our memories and love as the precious treasures that they are.

I love you forever!

Until we meet again...

Obituary

Our beloved, Mr. Shaydrinne Lamar Franklin, the loving husband of Mrs. Robyn Lynn DiCorte-Franklin, gained his precious wings on Sunday, March 31, 2019. He was a lifelong resident of Ocala, FL, until moving to Sanford, FL, almost two years ago.

Shay was a 1996 graduate of Lake Weir High School in Ocala. He learned his tinting trade and skills from mentor Mark Hart, III at Mega Sound/Glass Masters. He was very well known for his precise, efficient and quality work.

Shay became a friend to everyone he met, and it seemed as there was never a stranger. His warm personality and calm demeanor attracted many to him who later would see they had a lifelong friend. If you ever wanted to get him to talk, just mention anything about cars or ATVs. He loved everything concerning vehicles and had several vehicles he helped to customize in to drag racing and lifted vehicles. He also loved to go mudding and ride four-wheel ATVs.

Shay was a very devoted husband and father as well as brother, son, nephew, uncle, and cousin. He loved his family dearly and treated all the kids as his own. He was always there no matter what their situation, to mentor and encourage them. He would always tell them to be better than he was, as if he could be any better. His connection with his loved ones will always be remembered and treasured.

Shay is survived by his loving wife, Robyn Lynn DiCorte-Franklin; sons, Kayden Franklin and Shedric Graham, Jr; daughters, Aisha Franklin, Tatiana Graham, and Shanika Williams; grandchildren, Lyric Graham, Eliyus Randolph, Rogelio Herrera, Arillana Ganey, and Ellianna Ganey; mother, Patricia Brown; step-father, Charles Brown; and sister, Christian Coe, all of Ocala; four brothers-in-law and two sisters-in-law; and a host of loving uncles, aunts, cousins, nephews, nieces, and special friends.

Shay was preceded in death by his beloved pet, Ceasar "Capone" Franklin.

Daddy, I love you. I wish I would have spent more time with you. Thank you for being a great dad and not walking out on me and staying in my life and developing me into what I am today. And I hope one day I will meet you in Heaven.

~ Kayden

You are, were and will always be the father figure in my life. I look forward to the day that we meet again. I know that you and Capone are having a blast at the beach in Heaven. Thank you, Shay, for so much. I love you!

~ Ric

Shay you were more than a father to me; you were my friend. I could call you anytime and you would answer. We could talk and laugh for hours. You were always there for me when I needed you.

I'll miss your love forever.

RIP Dad. I love you so much. You fought for a good two months. I know you're in a better place and you're not hurting anymore. I'm gonna miss you so much. I really wanted you to see me graduate and I'm still going to make you proud.

~ Aisha

Pops, you've always been there for us and loved us as your own. Thank you for everything. We love you and will never forget to do our best to make you proud.
