

In Memory of a Special Son

It's sometimes hard to know why some things happen as they do for so much joy and happiness was centered around you

It seems so hard to comprehend that you're no longer here but all the happy memories will help to keep you near

You're thought about with pride, Son with each mention of your name death cannot change a single thing the love will still remain

Reflection of Life

Tyler Drejon Ford was born in Gainesville, Florida on November 1st, 1997 to the parents of Dwayne Ford and April Stokes. Tyler joined First Union at an early age, and was also a youth usher and a member of the drama ministry. In his younger days, he enjoyed playing t-ball and rookie ball, and in his high school days he enjoyed playing football. Tyler's passion in life was cooking where he created unique, delicious recipes which he chose not to share with anyone, and was accepted into the culinary program at Tampa Bay Tech. Tyler enjoyed watching movies, talking on the phone, and loved cracking jokes and he especially loved any and every kid that he came across. Tyler was loved by everyone who met him and had a smile that would brighten your day.

He leaves to celebrate his life, his mother April (Karsane) Stokes, and his father Dewayne (LaTacha) Ford. Godparents: Richard and Iris Bailey; Grandmother: Lula Moore, Mary (Charles) Young of Gainesville, FL.; Grandfather: Jessie (Bertha) Reese of Spring Hill, FL., Claudie Ford, Arbie (Fannie) McClendon of Gainesville, FL.; Great Grandmother: Lillian Williams of Gainesville, FL; Brothers: Tayelen Seabrook, Gainesville, FL.; S. Andre (Liz) Hunt of Lake City, FL; Savonte (Gabbi) Hunt, Sisters: Etashina Whitfield, Myriah King, Ryanna Sanders, Ayanna Ford, Destiny Ford, Ashley (Travail) Davis, Falicia Mincey all of Gainesville, FL.; Sivonnia (Jorge) DeBarros of Woodstock, IL; Shawntavia Hunt of Archer, FL.; Alaisha Valentine of Rock Hill, SC and Martha (James) Scott of Gainesville, FL. and a host of sorrowing aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
