Obituary

James Alexander “Big James” Clark was born on December 13, 1942, in Nassau, Bahamas. As a young boy he relocated to Miami, FL, which he affectionately referred to as “305”. He later moved to Gainesville, FL, in the early 1970s, where he worked construction for many years. He had a passion and love for all types of music. He also enjoyed walking and exercising to maintain his health. James always had a desire to return home to Miami, FL. On September 1, 2021, God whispered in Big James’ ear and said, “Come home, my child.”

He was preceded in death by his mother, Lottie, his father, Clark, his sister, Blniva Clark, his brother, Leroy Clark, and wife, Jacqueline Boykins Clark.

He leaves behind to cherish his precious memories: his children, Manuel Norman, Jasmine Clark, Kendric Baker, Leon Scott, Shamanuel Preston (John), Antoinette Newsome, Anthony Newsome, James Clark, Tony Newsome, Ariana Newsome, and Lottie Newsome; his stepchildren, Lakenya Tyson (Robert), Dominique Williams (Eric), Shanteria Scott, Clisa Lee Voyd, and Ryan Boykins; 22 grandchildren; one great-grand; a longtime “special friend”, Michelle Preston McKnight; and a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
