*My God and I go in the field together;
 We walk and talk as good friends should and do;
 We clasp our hands, our voices ring with laughter;
 My God and I walk through the meadow's hue.
 We clasp our hands, our voices ring with laughter;
 My God and I walk through the meadow's hue.*

*He tells me of the years that went before me
 When heavenly plans were made for me to be;
 When all was but a dream of dim reflection;
 To come to life, earth's verdant glory see.
 When all was but a dream of dim reflection;
 To come to life, earth's verdant glory see.*

*My God and I will go for aye together,
 We'll walk and talk just as good friends do;
 This earth will pass, and with it common trifles,
 But God and I will go unendingly.
 This earth will pass, and with it common trifles,
 But God and I will go unendingly.*

 is life's greatest Blessing.
