THELIFE OF

Eddie "Ed" Albert Klone

1938 - 2019

It is with great sadness that the family of Ed Klone announce his passing away, on July 3, 2019, at the young age of 81.

Ed took great pride in working his hardest to be successful. He owned and operated numerous companies one being a trucking company, successful farmer and even owned his own plane which he often just buzzed the area for the heck of it.

Ed & Gwen resided in Lethbridge and Havasu Springs where they had many friends. Ed was very social and enjoyed spending time and entertaining with his friends. He also was an avid golfer, fishmen and his favorite past time of Happy Hour.

He will be forever missed by his wife Gwen who has been

He will be forever missed by his wife Gwen who has been by his side for 46 years. Between the two they had 4 children Kim (John), Cam (Allen), Mark (Tammy), Susanne (Shane). He was blessed with 5 grandchildren Morgan, Amanda, Brett, Ashley, Aimee & Riley.

He will be greatly missed by his siblings Jim (Lea), Dennis (Jay), Marlene (Gordon), Marjorie, & Doreen. He will sorely be missed by his loving furry sidekick, Tory and many furry friends before him.

Ed was predeceased by his parents August & Ethel, brother Norman, and Robert Brown.
