

We thought of you with
love today
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence
We OFTEN speak your name
Now all we have is Memories
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping
We have you in our heart.

mb Martin Brothers
© Funeral Chapels

In Loving Memory Of
Peggy Marjorie Lane
July 5, 1928 - September 5, 2019

We thought of you with
love today
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence
We OFTEN speak your name
Now all we have is Memories
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping
We have you in our heart.

mb Martin Brothers
© Funeral Chapels

In Loving Memory Of
Peggy Marjorie Lane
July 5, 1928 - September 5, 2019

Celebrating THE Life OF Peggy Marjorie Lane

Peggy Marjorie Lane (nee Wooderson), beloved wife of the late Roy Arthur Lane, passed away on September 5, 2019, at the age of 96 years in Lethbridge Alberta.

Peggy was born in London, England to Thomas Edmund Wooderson and Daisy Lillian Wooderson (nee King) where she lived until marrying Roy in 1945. Peggy was very artistic and wished to study art but was persuaded by her mother to train as a teacher, first in London, then evacuating to Durham to complete her studies during World War II. There she met and roomed with her lifelong friends Dorothy, Sadie, and Joyce, and pursued her passion for art as a hobby.

While teaching in London after the war, she married and came to Canada as a war bride. After living in several locations in Canada, including Vidora, Saskatchewan, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, and a ranch in southern Alberta, Peggy and Roy settled in Lethbridge to raise their family. Here she turned her artistic pursuits to gardening, creating an oasis on the prairies, painting the garden with broad strokes of colourful flowers, and also was a talented seamstress. In addition, Peggy was a wonderful baker. No dinner was complete without an array of desserts and she was renowned in her family for her apple pies.

Peggy is survived by her daughters Marjorie (Fred Andrews), Carol (Brian Kasper) and Patricia (Stephen Bell) and her grandchildren Matthew and Michael Bell.

Funeral Service

2 00pm, Tuesday, September 10, 2019
Martin Brothers Riverview Chapel
Lethbridge, Alberta
Pastor Rodger Halvorsen, officiating

Eulogy

Fred Andrews

Honorary Pallbearers

All Family & Friends Present Today

Poem ~ God's Garden

Musical Selections

I Did It My Way ~ Andre Rieu
White Cliffs Of Dover ~ Glen Miller & Orchestra 1941
Time To Say Goodbye ~ Andrea Bocelli

Graveside Service

Interment to follow at Mountain View Cemetery.

Reception

Please join the family for a time of fellowship and refreshments at Martin Brothers Reception Centre following the service.

Celebrating THE Life OF Peggy Marjorie Lane

Peggy Marjorie Lane (nee Wooderson), beloved wife of the late Roy Arthur Lane, passed away on September 5, 2019, at the age of 96 years in Lethbridge Alberta.

Peggy was born in London, England to Thomas Edmund Wooderson and Daisy Lillian Wooderson (nee King) where she lived until marrying Roy in 1945. Peggy was very artistic and wished to study art but was persuaded by her mother to train as a teacher, first in London, then evacuating to Durham to complete her studies during World War II. There she met and roomed with her lifelong friends Dorothy, Sadie, and Joyce, and pursued her passion for art as a hobby.

While teaching in London after the war, she married and came to Canada as a war bride. After living in several locations in Canada, including Vidora, Saskatchewan, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, and a ranch in southern Alberta, Peggy and Roy settled in Lethbridge to raise their family. Here she turned her artistic pursuits to gardening, creating an oasis on the prairies, painting the garden with broad strokes of colourful flowers, and also was a talented seamstress. In addition, Peggy was a wonderful baker. No dinner was complete without an array of desserts and she was renowned in her family for her apple pies.

Peggy is survived by her daughters Marjorie (Fred Andrews), Carol (Brian Kasper) and Patricia (Stephen Bell) and her grandchildren Matthew and Michael Bell.

Funeral Service

2 00pm, Tuesday, September 10, 2019
Martin Brothers Riverview Chapel
Lethbridge, Alberta
Pastor Rodger Halvorsen, officiating

Eulogy

Fred Andrews

Honorary Pallbearers

All Family & Friends Present Today

Poem ~ God's Garden

Musical Selections

I Did It My Way ~ Andre Rieu
White Cliffs Of Dover ~ Glen Miller & Orchestra 1941
Time To Say Goodbye ~ Andrea Bocelli

Graveside Service

Interment to follow at Mountain View Cemetery.

Reception

Please join the family for a time of fellowship and refreshments at Martin Brothers Reception Centre following the service.