

— ACKNOWLEDGMENT —

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. May God forever bless each of you.

Joshua Antoine Zarazua, a beloved father, brother, son, and friend was born on January 31, 1994, to Ronnie and Dasheque Zarazua in Waco, Texas. Joshua was known to his friends as Panda Puka, but to me "My Baby."

The Good Lord called Joshua home on January 21, 2023. Joshua graduated from University High School, not long after graduation he had dreams of being a boxer and martial artist.

Joshua was a visionary with bold and audacious dreams. Relentlessly pursuing perfection. Joshua showed love to everyone who crossed his path. He was a great role model to his kids whom he loved dearly and, a mentor to his friends. Joshua loved listening to old school music and even making his own music. Video games were a must, Halo to be exact. Joshua loved his family and his MMA family completed his circle. Joshua had the biggest smile.

Joshua was preceded in death by his father, Ronnie Zarazua. Joshua leaves to cherish his mother, Dosheque Zarazua; his two children, Trey Zarazua and Amayiah Zarazua; grandmother, Jessie F. Daniels; five siblings, Ronnie Zarazua, LaRon Hicks, Jr., Quonnell Barnett, Krisna Heights and DaRion Holloway; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews.
