Lucille Williams was born on November 18, 1942, in Waco, Texas, to George and Mary Franklin.

She married Norah Evans and spent over 50 years with him until the Lord called him home in 2011. Lucille was later remarried to her good friend, Lacy Williams, of Leroy, Texas. Lucille had two beautiful daughters, Floretta Ballou and Ruby Fae Montgomery. She loved her city of Waco, Texas, and spent her entire life there.

Lucille accepted Christ at an early age and acknowledged him as her Lord and Savior. She loved her church family at One Fellowship Church, and served as an usher.

Lucille enjoyed sociable events and outings with her family and friends. She was a diva to everyone. No matter where she went, she was also dressed to impress. She loved her big rings, decorative jewels, and dangling earrings. She spent many weekends shopping with her best friend, Shirley Estelle, and eating out at different restaurants.

Lucille Williams peacefully exchanged her time on earth for eternity at 11:57 p.m. on Saturday, April 25, 2020, at Baylor Scott & White Hospital in Waco, Texas. She is preceded in death by both her daughters and all of her brothers and sisters.

Lucille was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, auntie, and friend to many. She cherished her grandkids, Cevana Ballou-Baldwin and Catrece-Ballou Smith. She took pride in being a great-grandmother to her eight great-grandchildren, CaVosciun Taylor, McKailah Baldwin, Chamira Ballou, Cheyann Baldwin, Coby Baldwin, CeNiya Baldwin, Caleah Smith, and Caylee Smith; along with her great-great-grandchild, CaVonna Taylor. She also leaves to cherish her memories, her good friend Edna Jean Hubby; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, families, and friends.
